THE BURGUNDY AUCTION

In Celebration of La Paulée®

FEATURING PIONEERS II

Putting this auction together is always one of my favorite times of the year. We "come back" from New Year's (but of course we never went anywhere this year) and we hit the ground running putting together this amazing Burgundyonly auction. And indeed, if we did this right, this day is ONLY Burgundy. You asked for it, you got it. 2020 was a difficult year, but we persevered with 40 auctions $125,000,000 in wine sold ($85m of it at auction) and thousands and thousands of world records set. And we were able to keep doing what we do well, safely, and successfully. Can't wait to show you what we've got in store for 2021!

The lots here are simply jaw-dropping in their breadth and depth. DRC, Rousseau, Roumier, Dujac, an enormous selection of Leroy and D'Auvenay, Coche, Liger-Belair, Bachelet and more and more and more. We've got truly amazing provenance on some of these lots, too. 1966 DRC with the original receipt back to the Domaine? We got that. A colossal amount of wines in this auction were bought on release too. We've got case lots of Truchot and Engel—you don't see those too often. We've got more Burgundy than I've seen in a while... 257 bottles of Roumier, 251 bottles of Rousseau, 253 bottles of DRC, and 35 bottles of d'Auvenay, which has to be a reasonably high percentage of annual production...

Of course the one thing we don't have this year is the opportunity to get together and enjoy a glass of wine during the auction! Soon enough though, soon enough, for my own sanity! I've been cooped up like everyone else, training my 4 year old on how to tell the difference between a Bordeaux and a claret, and other fun parlor tricks which will serve her well in college.

I hope everyone out there is remaining safe, and drinking well. If you're like me, your cellar has been depleted at an astonishing rate over the winter. Don't worry—we can help you to replenish.

Cheers, Charles

BURGUNDY

ARMAND ROUSSEAU

One will get little argument to the assertion that Domaine Armand Rousseau is the finest estate in Gevrey-Chambertin...

The vintages of the 1980s and 1990s at Domaine Rousseau have produced one of the greatest runs of profound Burgundy ever witnessed by any estate in the region, with the domaine producing legendary efforts in the widely recognized great years of the span from 1985 to 1999. Their two flagship bottlings of Chambertin and Chambertin "Clos de Bèze" have always ranked amongst the top dozen wines to be found in these vintages.

Of the two Grand Crus at the pinnacle of the brilliant portfolio of Rousseau wines, the Chambertin "Clos de Bèze" tends to be the more exotic and spicy of the two wines, with glorious fruit tones of black cherry, plum, blood orange often augmented by notes of Gevrey's grilled meat, chocolate and exotic spices. The Chambertin is typically the slightly slower wine to unfold, with a more understated profile of plum, red cherry and strawberry, coupled with notes of cocoa powder, coffee, grilled meats and violets... impeccably balanced, tangy and never come across as over-oaked. They are amongst the very greatest red wines to be found in the world.

DUJAC

This domaine was founded in 1968 by Jacques Seysses and currently comprises approximately fifteen hectares. Winemakers Jeremy and Diana Seysses have been at the helm of the Domaine since 2001. They believe that the success of their wines lie in the team effort at the Domaine from their Chef de Culture in the vineyard, Lilian Robin, to Jeremy's brother, Alec, and father, Jacques, who contribute in the cellar. In 2009, the Domaine began its conversion to total biodynamic farming practices. The Domaine chooses to emphasize intensity over power and prides itself on producing individualistic wines that are elegant, delicate, and complex.

DOMAINE PONSOT

Domaine Ponsot in Morey St Denis has long been one of the most important domaines in the Côte d'Or. It began rather meagerly with just a hectare of vines in the 1920s (according to Remington Norman, though I have seen figures of an initial three hectares elsewhere), but had grown to the six hectares by the last 1940s, when Jean-Marie Ponsot began to work with his father, Hippolyte Ponsot. Jean-Marie succeeded to full control of the domaine in 1957, and his son, Laurent, (the current head of the family domaine) made his first vintage in 1983. Today the domaine is just short of nine hectares, with more than a third of it in Clos de la Roche, of which the Ponsots are the largest landholders. In addition to the family's own vines, the Ponsots had over the years entered into a number of different metayage (sharecropping) agreements, which brought vines under their control in crus such as Latricières- Chambertin, Griottes-Chambertin, Chambertin and Chambolle-Musigny Les Charmes, as well as a bit more Clos de la Roche and Clos St Denis to augment their own holdings.

For years the domaine's wines were reputed to be very inconsistent from vintage to vintage, with their successes amongst the very greatest wines of any given vintage, but the less successful vintages relative failures. Much of this has been attributed to the propensity of both Jean-Marie and Laurent Ponsot to harvest very late, shooting for maximum ripeness to add a powerful dimension to their wines. When this methodology worked, as in vintages such as 1980, 1985, 1989, 1990 or 1991, the Ponsot wines were monumental blockbusters, thick with lush, creamy old vine fruit, strongly marked by their respective terroirs and very complex. In the "homerun" vintages, Ponsot wines are rich, bordering on syrupy (as they have such voluptuous fruit), but with excellent structural elements and fine focuses as well.

DOMAINE LEFLAIVE

Joseph Leflaive was a very astute purchaser of vineyard land during the first two decades of the twentieth century, so that today the domaine's roster of vineyards is the greatest constellation of white Burgundy patrimony in the Côte de Beaune. These include just under two full hectares in Chevalier-Montrachet, an equal slice in Bâtard-Montrachet, a bit more than a hectare in Bienvenues-Bâtard-Montrachet (out of a total of 2.3 hectares), just over three hectares in the beautiful Premier Cru of Pucelles, three-quarters of a hectare in Combettes, 1.27 hectares in Folatières, and nearly five hectares in Premier Cru Clavoillon. In 1991, the topping on the cake was added when the domaine purchased a very small, .08 hectare slice of Le Montrachet itself.

COMTE DE VOGÜÉ

Delicate, feminine and fragrant, the epitome of finesse: lace, silk and taffeta; violets and dog-roses; raspberries and blackcurrants with a finish of liquorice; amplitude and generosity; intensity without a trace of hardness. All this has been said by those attempting to describe the taste of Le Musigny. Le Musigny consists of two sub-climats, Le Musigny itself and at the same altitude next door to the south, Les Petits-Musigny. The lion's share, more than seven hectares, almost seventy percent, and including the totality of Les Petites-Musigny, belongs to the Domaine Comte Georges de Vogüé. This estate proclaims itself the Domaine des Musigny. The domaine also comprise 2.75 hectares of Bonnes-Mares, located entirely in the southern, Chambolle end of the climat, sixty ares of Amoureuses, 1.80 hectares of Premiers Crus (Baudes and Fuées) and a small parcel of village wine. # RARE BURGUNDIES from a WEST COAST CONNOISSEUR

What's the secret to a collection to building a cellar? Luck? Charm? That 'je ne sais quoi' of being in the right place at the right time? The kind of foresight that allows you to buy Amazon at $4/share? If you ask our consignor, he'll tell you in his humble way there's no magic to his method. In the course of building and enjoying one of the greatest cellars on the West Coast, this consignor built a system of values. Finding a passion for wine at a young age allowed him to seek out mentors who opened great bottles with him while he was forming his taste. He learned to trust his own palate when making decisions, and to then buy deeply. He took chances on up-and-coming producers and took the time to travel to regions for in depth study. Early on, the value of relationships with key trade became apparent and abiding friendships were born. And above all, maintain a cold cellar.

The wines listed for sale below need little introduction, ranging from the rarest of Grands Crus from Leroy to banded cases of DRC. Many ready to drink wines are here for the thirsty buyers, including early and exciting vintages of Roulot and P.Y.C.M. The majority were purchased directly in Europe and imported privately with Adventures in Wine. The home cellar, where these wines enjoyed a long slumber, is kept at a constant 48-degree temperature with 63% humidity. This is just a bit of cellar pruning and the first of hopefully many great consignments from this esteemed collector. Bid with confidence!

DOMAINE LEROY

How do you determine great? Is it size? Is it quality? Is it price? Is it 'reputation' (whatever that is)? Is it the amount of media coverage? However you do compute it, the greatest domaines of Burgundy today must be those under the control of Lalou Bize: the Domaine Leroy and her own Domaine d'Auvenay. The estates of Jadot, Faiveley and Bouchard Père et Fils are far larger, that of Romanée-Conti the most splendid in terms of the percentage of Grand Cru terroir, but for the nobility of its wines, pride of place must go to Leroy and to Domaine d'Auvenay. The sheer concentration, depth and intensity Lalou Bize manages to squeeze into her bottles is breathtaking. Lalou, born in Paris, was brought up in Meursault, in the mansion today occupied by her daughter Perrine. "From the word go I was fascinated," she says. "I was a cellar rat, watching and helping the cavistes rack the wines, taste them, bottle them. My mother kept calling me to come out of the cellar and play with my friends like a normal schoolgirl, but as soon as I could I crept back." In 1955 she persuaded her father to let her take over. She was twenty-three. "He gave me carte blanche," she says. "I started as I meant to go on. I bought finished wine, and only that which pleased me."

Lalou is now happy at the Domaine Leroy and on her own. "Look at my vines," she will say. "Look how healthy and comfortable they are." And, being Lalou, she will not fail to point out a neighbor's plot of excessively abundant, uncontrolled growth. "And come and taste the wine." Lalou's wines, according to her, are always 'extra'. The one-time cellar rat is now a master in her own right, and the wines she produces are triumphantly brilliant.

Corton-Charlemagne Pierre-Yves Colin-Morey 2011

Côte de Beaune, Grand Cru original carton two lightly bin-soiled labels

"A restrained if beautifully complex nose features notes of wet stone, Granny Smith apples, dried white flowers and a mix of primarily white orchard fruit scents, in particular pear. There is excellent concentration to the highly textured medium weight plus flavors that are imposing in their raw power and drive, all wrapped in an intensely mineral-driven finish that, like the Perrières, is borderline painful. Think patience here as plenty will be required before this is fully ready...92-94." BH 7/13.

JF MUGNIER

For such an important domaine, which in addition to its 1.37 hectares of vines in Musigny proper, also possesses significant holdings in Bonnes-Mares, Chambolle-Musigny Premiers Crus Les Amoureuses and Les Fuées, as well as a monopole on the fine Nuits St Georges Premier Cru of the Clos de la Maréchale...Jacques-Frédéric's great-grandfather, Frédéric Mugnier, had been a merchant of spirits in Dijon in the middle of the nineteenth century, and as his business in Dijon prospered, he was able to buy his parcels of vines in Chambolle-Musigny and Nuits St Georges during the nadir in fortunes of the area brought about by the phylloxera epidemic.

The Mugniers added to their vineyard holdings in the area when they bought the Château de Chambolle-Musigny in 1889 (also from the Marey- Monge family), though the house was used primarily as an occasional retreat from the city for the family for many, many years to come, with no one from the Mugnier family settling down in Chambolle until today's proprietor, Jacques-Frédéric Mugnier returned to Chambolle from overseas in 1984. As he relates, "my family were people from the city" so it is not surprising that "I am the first one to live permanently in this house." During the 1920s, the family business was run by five grandsons of Frédéric Mugnier (who had passed away in 1911), with James Mugnier officially in charge of the wine side of the business and the vineyards. Of these five grandsons, only one, Jacques Mugnier, ever married and had children, and it is from this grandson of Frédéric Mugnier that today's proprietor, Jacques-Frédéric Mugnier is related. Making wines of purity and grace, JF Mugnier is surely one of the most sought after producers in all of Burgundy.

Classic Burgundy, the term that embodies wines that were created underneath Jacky Truchot; fragrant, pure, and elegant are the words that describe his masterfully vinified product. Truchot's style was textbook, no filtration, minuscule amounts of new oak, 100% destemmed, absolutely no cold soaking, and as high of a yield as the AOC allows. Jacky Truchot closed a chapter of Burgundy history in 2005, setting off a scramble for collectors who appreciate the clean style of classic Burgundy.

DOMAINE DE LA ROMANÉE-CONTI

Domaine de la Romanée-Conti produces what few would dispute are the world's most collectible wines.

Its pre-eminence is such that the cognoscenti refer to it simply as "The Domaine". If you're just getting into Burgundy, the reverence may seem a bit much, but a look at their vineyard holdings makes their supremacy a bit more understandable.

The jewel in the crown is the vineyard of Romanée-Conti itself. This site, initially called the Clos des Croux, was originally owned by the Benedictine monks of the abbey of Saint-Vivant de Vergy. The monks had received the vineyards from the Duchess of Burgundy Alix de Vergy in 1232. The property was sold by the monks in 1584 and renamed La Romanée in the 17th Century. The vineyard passed through several owners before being purchased by Louis-François de Bourbon in 1760. His status as the cousin of King Louis XV afforded him the title of Prince de Conti, giving rise to the current name of the vineyard.

After the Revolution, Romanée-Conti was sold to raise money for the fledgling Republic, and ended up in the hands of Jules Ouvrard, the son of Napoléon's banker. Upon his death, the heirs sold the vineyard to Jacques-Marie Duvault-Blochet, the ancestor of the de Villaine family, who still own the domaine, in partnership with the Leroy family. In 1911 Edmond Gaudin de Villaine purchased the winery which had originally belonged to the monks of the abbey. He moved the winemaking from Santenay, where Duvault-Blochet had been based, to Vosne-Romanée, near the vineyards, and gave the new winery its current name.

Duvault-Blochet amassed impressive vineyard holdings during his lifetime, including prime parcels in Romanée-Saint-Vivant, Richebourg, Echézeaux, and Grands-Echézeaux, as well as a plot called Les Gaudichots. Gaudichots adjoined a vineyard called La Tâche, which was owned by Count Liger-Belair. Domaine de la Romanée-Conti often sold Gaudichots under the name of La Tâche, much to the irritation of Liger-Belair, who unsuccessfully sued them.

At the death of the Comtesse Liger-Belair in 1931, La Tâche was sold to the Domaine, and the entire site of more than six hectares was then known as La Tâche. Romanée-Conti and La Tâche are both wholly-owned by Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, and are thus referred to in French as "monopoles". These are the two most desirable wines from DRC, although the Richebourg, Romanée-Saint-Vivant, Echézeaux, and Grands-Echézeaux are all made in the same way.

All of the vineyards are farmed according to biodynamic principals, and yields are kept very low. The hand-picked bunches are fermented whole in open-top wooden fermenters before being aged for approximately a year and a half in new casks. In addition to the parcels that they own, DRC leases (since 2009) just over two hectares of Corton from the heirs of the Prince de Mérode family.

While red wines form the bulk of the production at DRC, it would be a mistake to overlook the Montrachet. This white wine is produced from 0.67 hectares of vines in Chassagne-Montrachet. The result is rich and lush, with a luxurious heft on the palate almost recalling the density of their red wines. The Domaine is about to move further into white wine production, since they have recently leased 2.8 hectares of vineyards from Bonneau du Martray and will begin to produce Corton-Charlemagne with the 2019 vintage. In total, they own just over 25.5 hectares of vines and lease another five hectares in Corton, and every drop is a wine lover's dream.

What does all of this history mean for you, the collector? A bottle of DRC is a vinous experience like no other. At Zachys, we often get asked if the wine can justify its price tag. For collectors of DRC, or for those who have tasted it, the answer is almost always yes. For those for whom the wine is a bit more aspirational, a combination of the wine itself, and the history to which you are connected when you pop a cork, is a joint-experience rare in the wine world.

DOMAINE ROULOT

For more than 170 years Domaine Roulot has been an important presence in Meursault. But it was only in the 1920s and 30s that the family, led by Paul Roulot, became grape growers as well as winemakers and distillers. The Domaine as we currently know it was founded by Guy Roulot in the late 1950s and is now run by his son and daughter. The Domaine is comprised of about eleven hectares in the communes of Meursault, Monthélie and Auxey-Duresses. The vineyards are farmed following organic and biodynamic principles. Jean-Marc Roulot, a classically-trained actor and the current winemaker at Domaine Roulot, has turned this Domaine into one of the most revered of the region. The wines are exceptionally terroir-expressive, pure and elegant.

DOMAINE FOURRIER

Jean-Marie Fourrier took over the family property from his father in the mid-1990s and the quality of the Domaine's wines improved markedly and rapidly. Jean-Marie subscribes to the philosophy that great wines begin in the vineyard and he is fastidious about maintaining healthy, well-nurtured vines. He saw firsthand the importance of minimal intervention in the winemaking process (provided one had excellent raw materials from the vineyards), when he studied under the great Henri Jayer in the late 1980s. Fourrier is careful to crush only the choicest fruit, all completely destemmed, in his immaculately clean and recently outfitted with new stainless steel tanks fermentation room. He also limits the use of new oak to around 20% so as to better allow the Burgundian terroir to fully express itself in the glass. The product of all this hard work is wines marked by wonderful purity, transparency, and bright vibrant fruit, wines that are a true testament to the land that Jean-Marie Fourrier so carefully cultivates.

This collection features an attentive collection of Italian and Burgundian gems, courtesy of a longtime collector and client of Zachys. This collector has consigned with us several times in the past and has made the difficult decision to part with the following lots. There is a focused depth to this consignment representing some of the greatest Burgundy and Piedmont released in recent vintages. Including 14 lots of Domaine Leroy, 11 lots of Giacomo Conterno and an incredible two bottle lot of Bonnes-Mares Domaine d'Auvenay 2009. Many of these wines were purchased through Zachys retail on release, and all have been in professional storage since purchase. The provenance and collection here are equally impeccable!

Wow. Just wow. These wines are as rare as rare can be (as anyone that has read the back label can attest). This is an absolutely astonishing opportunity to pick up Leroy and Leroy's Domaine d'Auvenay en masse. These wines were bought on release and stored in a gorgeous custom cellar on the west coast. ### DOMAINE D'AUVENAY

Domaine d'Auvenay is the personal domaine of Lalou Bize-Leroy. When we think of Domaine Leroy, we think of tiny quantities of some of Burgundy's greatest wines. At Domaine d'Auvenay the quantities are microscopic, the quality just as high. The estate's entire holdings are around just four hectares. Even by top end Burgundy standards it is tiny. However since she first established the Domaine in 1989 it has gone on to become the stuff of legend among Burgundy collectors and connoisseurs the world over.

These are ultra-rare and the best of the best, no serious cellar is complete without them.

One will notice that many perfectly stored bottles from Domaine d'Auvenay will have assessment notes of signs of seepage. This is due to the fact they are overfilled at the domaine and are not an indication of poor storage conditions.

PIONEERS

(LOTS 1049-1071 & 375-592)

THE PIONEERS COLLECTION IS BACK!

You may remember this first section of this stellar offering from our December auction, and if you do, then get ready for more the same excellence. If you don't well then keep reading.

This consignor is a pioneer in the business world, a man who forged his own path. The Chateaux, Domaines and wineries in this offering were also pioneers—winemakers who stood for quality, and because of this have become icons.

A large part of this collection was purchased directly from Zachys retail. All of the bottles in this offering were stored here, not 75 feet from where I'm writing this letter (but in a much colder part of the building).

Similar to last time, this offering of Cheval Blanc alone in Day 1 has to be one of the best ever put into a Zachys auction, with dozens of the legendary 1990. There are full cases of Haut Brion, and Haut Brion Blanc if that's more your speed. 2000 Latour, 2000 Lafite, 2000 Margaux. Need I go on? Ok, just a little bit: don't forget the 1967 Yquem and the 1989 and 1990 Le Pin.

But the Pioneer isn't just about Bordeaux! Today's offering includes a wonderful selection of rare Burgundy from the same excellent provenance and storage.

Your cellar will thank you for adding even just one lot from this consignment to your cellar, trust us!

PIONEERS II

HENRI BOILLOT

The Boillot family is one of the most well established dynasties in Burgundy, with five generations producing wine since 1855. Henri Boillot himself, dissatisfied with the light-bodied wines produced at the family domaine, left in 1984 to found his own negociant line of wines made in a more structured, intense style. The wines found great critical and commercial success and he was welcomed back into the family domaine, eventually buying out the shares of his brothers and sisters in 2005 and changing the name from Domaine Jean Boillot to Domaine Henri Boillot to mark the purchase and avoid confusion with his brother's Domaine Jean-Marc Boillot. A range of negociant wines is also produced under the name Maison Henri Boillot.

Domaine Henri Boillot wines are produced from fourteen hectares in the Côte de Beaune, half red and half white, with a philosophy of low yields, late harvesting by hand and two passes on a sorting table to ensure that only the best berries are selected. Maison Henri Boillot wines are produced with the same philosophy, with vinification of the negociant wines in Volnay and the domaine wines in Meursault. Today Henri Boillot continues to run all aspects of both operations, both in the vineyard and in the cellar, and with his son Guillaume working with him has assured that this historic name will continue to be among the best of Burgundy.

RAMONET

Pierre Ramonet was more than a character. He was, to use the old cliché – but it is true in this instance – a legend in his own lifetime. More or less from scratch, by dint of sheer hard work and a genius for wine, he built up one of the finest white wine domaines in Burgundy. Today the name of Ramonet is synonymous with top Chardonnay. The allocations for bottles are fought over, for every collector considers it his or her right to own some. They sell at auction for astronomical sums whenever they appear. On the rare occasions, as in January 1995 at the Montrachet restaurant in New York, when someone puts on a special vertical tasting and dinner, the tickets – and they are not cheap – are over-subscribed ten times. Ramonet in white is the equivalent of Henri Jayer or the Domaine de la Romanée-Conti in red.

Pierre Ramonet died in 1994 at the age of eighty-eight. He is much missed. But his echo lives on, and the wines, in the able hands of his grandsons Noel (born in 1962) and Jean-Claude (born in 1967) since the 1984 vintage (mais sous ses ordres, stoutly avers Noel), continue his reputation. They are very fine. A Ramonet wine is a Ramonet wine before it is a Chassagne, or a Bienvenues, or a Bâtard...or a Montrachet.

PIERRE-YVES COLIN-MOREY

Pierre-Yves Colin had been the winemaker at his father's Domaine Marc Colin since 1995 when, in 2001, he decided to strike out on his own with his wife Caroline Morey, first as a micro-négociant operation, focusing on tiny quantities of the finest fruit he could buy. He has since grown his holdings to include parcels in the communes of Chassagne-Montrachet, Meursault, Saint-Aubin and Santenay. His choice to use larger demi-muid barrels and eschew the use of battonnage makes each one of his bottlings a clear expression of its terroir and a study in mineral-driven Chardonnay, producing wine of extraordinary purity, elegance and precision. Pierre-Yves Colin and his wines have quickly become international stars.

EYE-POPPING, JAW-DROPPING BURGUNDY & more from a COLLECTOR & GOURMAND

(LOTS 1207-1357 & 46-48)

Every once in a while, there's a collection that comes along that just screams "La Paulee."

This is one of those collections.

From a longtime collector and Burgundy fanatic, this offering reads like a who's who of the Côte D'Or: Mugnier, Roumier, DRC, Truchot, Liger-Belair. The list goes on and on.

Working on this consignment was a pleasure as the consignor is meticulous and fastidious. Which means that you, as the end buyer, know you're getting the absolute best Burgundy on the market today. These wines were stored in private temperature and humidity-controlled lockers in a professional wine warehouse. They were removed by the consignor and shipped to Zachys for this auction. Most were bought on release. As you read through the consignment, you'll notice the near-perfect conditions. The consignor selected only the best for this auction.

SYLVAIN CATHIARD

This tiny Domaine was established by Sylvain Cathiard's grandfather ( who worked the vineyards for Domaine de la Romanée-Conti) in the 1930s and then maintained by Sylvain's father from 1969 until 1985, when Sylvain himself became involved. The following year, Sylvain set up his own with parcels of vines rented from his father and other vignerons, before taking on his father's original vineyards. From 2006, he has been joined by his son, Sebastian, and they have formed the estate of Sylvain Cathiard et Fils.

Based in Vosne, his 5 hectares span Vosne-Romanée, Nuits-St-Georges and Chambolle-Musigny, with a very small parcel in Romanée-St-Vivant. All vineyard work is carried out with meticulous attention to detail by only himself, his son and his wife.

GEORGES ROUMIER

The domaine was enlarged a number of times since its inception in 1924, with Georges acquiring a bit more Bonnes-Mares in 1952, as well as two parcels of Clos Vougeot in the same year. In 1953 the Roumiers also purchased the monopole Premier Cru Morey St Denis "Clos de la Bussierre." In 1968, Jean-Marie's wife, Odile Ponnelle, purchased a tract of unplanted Corton-Charlemagne, which was subsequently committed to vine and the first Roumier Corton-Charlemagne was released in the 1974 vintage. In 1978 the domaine finally purchased the small slice of Musigny that they had been sharecropping since the mid-1920s.

Domaine Georges Roumier is one of my favorite domaines in all of the Côte d'Or. In my personal cellar, by quite some margin, I have more Roumier wines than from any other producer. I find them to be extremely reliable for cellaring, and to deliver at their apogees all the majestic complexity for which Burgundy is rightly renowned. Out of the blocks they are not the typically delicate style of Chambolle, but rather wines that are full and wellstructured in their youth. For young Chambolles they are atypical, but within the fullness of time, they develop all the silk and perfume for which the wines of this village are so rightly cherished. From the superbly crafted Chambolle-Musigny village bottling that I buy in depth in every vintage to the lonely bottle of Roumier Musigny, these are among the greatest wines that I have in my cellar, and bottles that I look forward to growing old with comfortably.

RENÉ ENGEL

René Engel was one of the most famous Vosne-Romanée estates until Philippe, René's grandson, died in 2005. Philippe had been making the wine at his grandfather's estate since the early '80s, under René's watchful eye, of course. The estate was famous for a classic style of Burgundy that focused on finesse and elegance, and less extraction. The Domaine was sold to François Pinault (owner of Château Latour and Christie's, among other things) after Philippe's death in 2005 and is now known as Domaine Eugénie, after Pinault's mother. The wines of René Engel are disappearing quickly as they're not being made, and the collectors who own them can't help but drink them.

AGED BURGUNDY FROM A TIMELY COLLECTOR (LOTS 1366 & 257-274)

It might seem facetious to say "this consignor has been collecting wines longer than most of us have been alive" but in this case that is fact. Starting in the early 1940's, under his father's direction, this collector (in the truest sense of the word) started buying whenever he had the money to acquire what he wanted. His purchasing really started ramping up as he hit middle age and was one of the first big buyers of New York's legalized wine auctions in the 1990's. Many of these lots, those from 1982 and younger, were purchased from Zachys retail, some examples below were hand-sold from Don Zacharia directly in our store. The provenance on these bottles is immaculate for a collection of this age.

MULTIPLE VINEYARD VERTICALS OF PRISTINE LIGER-BELAIR (LOTS 1367-1392)

The following lots were all sourced directly on release and stored in a state of the art, temperature and humidity-controlled wine cellar. These bottles are pristine with perfect provenance.

LIGER-BELAIR

Domaine de la Romanée-Conti produces what few would dispute are the world's most collectible wines.

Its pre-eminence is such that the cognoscenti refer to it simply as "The Domaine". If you're just getting into Burgundy, the reverence may seem a bit much, but a look at their vineyard holdings makes their supremacy a bit more understandable.

The jewel in the crown is the vineyard of Romanée-Conti itself. This site, initially called the Clos des Croux, was originally owned by the Benedictine monks of the abbey of Saint-Vivant de Vergy. The monks had received the vineyards from the Duchess of Burgundy Alix de Vergy in 1232. The property was sold by the monks in 1584 and renamed La Romanée in the 17th Century. The vineyard passed through several owners before being purchased by Louis-François de Bourbon in 1760. His status as the cousin of King Louis XV afforded him the title of Prince de Conti, giving rise to the current name of the vineyard.

After the Revolution, Romanée-Conti was sold to raise money for the fledgling Republic, and ended up in the hands of Jules Ouvrard, the son of Napoléon's banker. Upon his death, the heirs sold the vineyard to Jacques-Marie Duvault-Blochet, the ancestor of the de Villaine family, who still own the domaine, in partnership with the Leroy family. In 1911 Edmond Gaudin de Villaine purchased the winery which had originally belonged to the monks of the abbey. He moved the winemaking from Santenay, where Duvault-Blochet had been based, to Vosne-Romanée, near the vineyards, and gave the new winery its current name.

Duvault-Blochet amassed impressive vineyard holdings during his lifetime, including prime parcels in Romanée-Saint-Vivant, Richebourg, Echézeaux, and Grands-Echézeaux, as well as a plot called Les Gaudichots. Gaudichots adjoined a vineyard called La Tâche, which was owned by Count Liger-Belair. Domaine de la Romanée-Conti often sold Gaudichots under the name of La Tâche, much to the irritation of Liger-Belair, who unsuccessfully sued them.

At the death of the Comtesse Liger-Belair in 1931, La Tâche was sold to the Domaine, and the entire site of more than six hectares was then known as La Tâche. Romanée-Conti and La Tâche are both wholly-owned by Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, and are thus referred to in French as "monopoles". These are the two most desirable wines from DRC, although the Richebourg, Romanée-Saint-Vivant, Echézeaux, and Grands-Echézeaux are all made in the same way.

All of the vineyards are farmed according to biodynamic principals, and yields are kept very low. The hand-picked bunches are fermented whole in open-top wooden fermenters before being aged for approximately a year and a half in new casks. In addition to the parcels that they own, DRC leases (since 2009) just over two hectares of Corton from the heirs of the Prince de Mérode family.

While red wines form the bulk of the production at DRC, it would be a mistake to overlook the Montrachet. This white wine is produced from 0.67 hectares of vines in Chassagne-Montrachet. The result is rich and lush, with a luxurious heft on the palate almost recalling the density of their red wines. The Domaine is about to move further into white wine production, since they have recently leased 2.8 hectares of vineyards from Bonneau du Martray and will begin to produce Corton-Charlemagne with the 2019 vintage. In total, they own just over 25.5 hectares of vines and lease another five hectares in Corton, and every drop is a wine lover's dream.

What does all of this history mean for you, the collector? A bottle of DRC is a vinous experience like no other. At Zachys, we often get asked if the wine can justify its price tag. For collectors of DRC, or for those who have tasted it, the answer is almost always yes. For those for whom the wine is a bit more aspirational, a combination of the wine itself, and the history to which you are connected when you pop a cork, is a joint-experience rare in the wine world.

SELECTIONS from the LEGENDARY COLLECTION of DR. ROB AND LINDA CAINE

On February 11th, 2011, the wine-collecting world first experienced The Legendary Collection of Dr. Robert Caine. At the time, it was undoubtedly the most spectacular single auction offering of Burgundy to come to market. Thirty-year verticals of Montrachet from Domaines Ramonet and Lafon, over 100 lots of Coche-Dury, and 90 lots of DRC. The quality and quantity, breadth and depth were, at the time, unheard of in these producers. Dr. Caine's obsessive focus on only the best is the hallmark of his collection. Nearly ten years to the day and those same top-tier producers are offered again, with the exceptional provenance only seen from this legendary collector.

It was less than 30 years ago that Rob & Linda Caine first went to Burgundy for a bicycle tour as wine amateurs. A few weeks later, they left with not only a passion for these wines but, more importantly, the beginnings of life-long relationships with several top producers. Those relationships have grown and multiplied over the last three decades—the fruits of these labors are exemplified in the following lots, highlighted by Bonnes-Mares Roumier 2011, Chambertin and Chambertin Clos de Bèze Rousseau from 1983 and 1984 respectively and several bottle of La Tâche DRC 1993.

Of course, what is a Caine consignment without some lots from one of the world's greatest white Burgundy. Corton-Charlemagne Coche-Dury and several lots of Montrachet Ramonet 2011 are just some of the enticing lots you will see below.

Each bottle in this offering has a reason and a purpose. There are no mistakes nor whimsical acquisitions here. Every bottle has been vetted and sourced with only the best provenance. The same traits that made Rob a brilliant surgeon and now a successful real estate developer are reflected in this collection. There is a passion and attention to detail that is unmatched.

Over the last decade (since working on the original single owner sale), I have had the pleasure to get to know The Caines and taste many bottles from Rob's cellar. In fact, all of us at Zachys have gotten to know Rob and Linda. Their generosity is only matched by the quality of wines in their cellar. I'm not alone in these thoughts. In the catalogue for Dr. Caine's 2011 offering, Allen Meadows of Burghound.com said, "It's rare to be able to say that I have never had a poor bottle from someone's collection but in this case, it's true, I have never had a substandard bottle served by Rob...to not have had an oxidized bottle is necessarily due to his judicious sourcing and insistence on impeccable provenance. To the extent that my experience is representative, you can buy Rob's wines with confidence."

FINEST RAREST BURGUNDY

(LOTS 1418-1536 & 321-322)

From a generous and prolific collector comes this amazing collection of rare Burgundy, removed from professional storage for this auction. Sometimes you come across a consignment that simply has "La Paulee" written all over it, and this is one of those offerings!

Bachelet, Fourrier, Hudelot-Noëllat, and many more, almost all in their original packaging and bought on or near release. There's Dujac, there's Leroy, there's Rousseau—this consignment is simply dripping with greats, in bottles and in large formats.

The vintages vary widely, too, from the open knit and delicious 2001s, to the long-lived 1999s, to the elegant and classic 2014s—wines which, for our money here at Zachys, are likely to go the distance.

The wines in this offering were stored perfectly, please bid with confidence!

HUDELOT-NOËLLAT

Domaine Hudelot-Noëllat was founded in 1964 by Alain and Odile Hudelot-Noëllat. Their wines have been regarded for generations as some of the best in Burgundy, thanks to their purity, smoothness and complexity. In 1978, the domaine grew considerably with the acquisition of five hectares in Vosne-Romanée from Domaine Charles Noëllat —Odile's grandfather's domaine — including parcels in Richebourg Grand Cru, as well as Premier Cru parcels in Romanée-Saint-Vivant Malconsorts, Beaumonts, and Suchots. Today the domaine owns fifteen appellations spread over ten hectares. The Premier Crus, Vosne-Romanée Les Beaumonts, Les Suchots and Malconsorts are all produced from vines that are 100 years old.

BOUCHARD

Bouchard Père et Fils was founded in 1731 and rapidly rose to prominence and remains to this day one of the greatest negociant/domaines in Burgundy. It is the largest owner of Premier and Grands Crus in the Côte d'Or with an incredible eighty-six hectares in these two categories plus another forty-four hectares of villages and regional vineyards, for a grand total of 130 hectares. And while not technically part of Bouchard proper, in 1998 Joseph Henriot, who is the owner of Bouchard, also bought William Févre in Chablis and they account for another fifty hectares of top vineyard land.

As anyone knows who does even a modicum of casual wine reading these days, there is the notion being promulgated virtually everywhere that all great wines must come from vintages with very high levels of ripeness, whether it be sugars (read alcohol levels) or phenolics. And while this is true so far as it goes, it doesn't leave room to accept that great vintages, and great wines, don't necessarily have to follow in this "ripeness is everything" mantra...Bouchard chooses not to pick on ripeness but rather acidity and has always done so. The wines, and their associated remarkable longevity, fly squarely in the face that the underlying phenolics must be ultra ripe for the wines to ever be any good, or just as importantly, age well.

The emphasis on favoring acidity rather than high ripeness does not come without a cost and that cost is often upfront drinkability. It would be a distortion to suggest that phenolic ripeness is ignored—it's not, but it's important to acknowledge that other viticultural philosophies than the current fad of emphasizing ripeness above all else can make exceptional wines as well, even though more patience is required to ultimately enjoy them. In that sense, Bouchard is not making modern wines as they do not fully destem and do not cold soak, which when combined with more acidity and often expressly structured wines frequently make the reds austere in their youth but time and again glorious with enough time in bottle. The whites, as these tastings amply demonstrate, age extremely well too but because they too favor ample acidity, also require plenty of time in bottle to be at their best.

Chevalier-Montrachet Bouchard Père et Fils 2009

Côte de Beaune, Grand Cru original wood case

"Very pale, green-tinged color. Captivating high-pitched aromas of lavender, herbs and dusty stone. Rich on entry, giving a dense, fine-grained, almost sweet impression, then surprising acidity and minerality enliven the middle palate. The finish conveys a slightly tannic impression but remains smooth and suave, not to mention very long. This classy Chevalier will need time to express itself...94." IWC 9/11.

COCHE-DURY

The two crown jewels amongst the white wines in the Coche cellar are the Meursault "Perrières" and the Corton-Charlemagne. The Corton-Charlemagne's first release was the 1986 vintage, and it is as fine a bottle of Corton Charlie as one can ever hope to find. It is very slow to unfold, and in any top vintage requires a minimum of ten years of bottle age to really blossom and begin to drink well

The Coche-Dury Meursault "Perrières" is the other twin titan in the cellar. Many Burgundy lovers, often over a glass of inspired Côte d'Or rouge or blanc, like to banter about which vineyards are worthy of promotion in the appellation controlée system if the French were ever to open up the Pandora's Box or reclassification. Almost universally, the vineyard of Meursault "Perrières" is mentioned as clearly worthy of Grand Cru status. If one were to choose and example of why this is the case, one could do no better than a bottle of Coche-Dury Meursault "Perrières". This is a complete wine that quite easily rivals the quality of the Corton-Charlemagne in the cellar. In some vintages the Corton looks to be the better of the two, sometimes the Meursault "Perrières". But in virtually every vintage the Meursault "Perrières" is a long-lived wine of uncompromising brilliance, and well worth the price of admission. There are not many Bâtard-Montrachets or Chevalier-Montrachets that I would trade even up for a bottle of Coche-Dury Meursault "Perrières".

John Gilman, "View From the Cellar", July 2003

Meursault Perrières Coche-Dury 2005

Côte de Beaune, Premier Cru wrinkled label

"The really astonishing thing about this wine is just the sheer amount of extract it brings to the party yet there is more than enough acidity to keep everything in perfect balance on the peacock's tail of a finish that does a slow build on the mid-palate to the explosively long finale...97." BH 2/15.

1565 1 bottle US$2200-3200

Montrachet Domaine de la Romanée-Conti 2003

Montrachet Domaine Ramonet 2004

Côte de Beaune, Grand Cru

lightly damp-stained and lightly torn label

"There is superb intensity to the powerful yet beautifully delineated big-bodied flavors that possess exceptionally good depth on the hugely long finish. One of the aspects that it immediately apparent is just how youthful this is and while it could be enjoyed now this is still very much on the way up and thus should benefit substantially from another 5 to 7 years of cellar time. In a word, magnificent...96." BH 11/14.

Chassagne-Montrachet Les Ruchottes Domaine Jean-Claude Ramonet 2014

two lightly bin-soiled labels, four lightly scuffed labels, one lightly torn label

"Once again there is a whiff of matchstick character along with hints of mint, oak and ripe white orchard fruit aromas. The medium-bodied flavors possess a highly seductive mouth feel and I was surprised at just how forward they are given how tightly wound the Cailleret is before tightening up somewhat on the opulent and sappy finish. This will undoubtedly age reasonably well though it has the additional benefit of being approachable, and enjoyable, young. 93." BH 6/17 #67

1572 9 bottles US$1800-2800

Chevalier-Montrachet Pierre-Yves Colin-Morey 2014

"High-pitched aromas of lime, minerals, wild herbs and lavender. Dense, thick and classically dry, showing a slightly buttery quality in the middle palate and a distinctly tannic impression on the long finish. This has the breadth and structure of a red wine and is almost painful in the early going...92-94." VM 9/15.

Meursault Perrières Pierre-Yves Colin-Morey 2015

Côte de Beaune, Premier Cru includes 6-pack original carton

"The 2015 Meursault 1er Cru Les Perrières has a crisp, wet stone and flinty bouquet that gains complexity as it aerates in the glass. There is wonderful detail here and impressive focus. The palate is crisp and taut with a killer line of acidity, just the right amount of salinity and there is impressive complexity and mineralité running all the way through to the finish. There is a tangible sense of confidence on this Les Perrières; it is one of Pierre-Yves Colin's best contributions to the 2015 vintage. This is superb...92-94." WA 4/17.

NOTES

Buying & Bidding Information

Prior to bidding, all participants must read the Buying & Bidding Information and the Conditions of Sale contained in this catalog that state the terms governing the purchase of alcoholic beverage products sold at auction. Auctions are operated by: (i) Zachys Europe Limited in respect of auctions which are conducted from the United Kingdom; (ii) Zachys Asia Limited in respect of auctions which are conducted from Hong Kong; (iii) Zachys Wine Auctions, Inc in respect of auctions which are conducted from anywhere else in the world; and (iv) in respect of online-only auctions, the entity stated in the auction particulars as operator of the auction, (each referred to as "Zachys") acting as agent for and on behalf of the relevant consignor of the goods to be offered for sale (the "Consignor"). By participating in an auction, an auction participant ("Buyer") agrees to be bound by this Buying & Bidding Information and the Conditions of Sale in this catalog (whether in print or online).

Estimates

Catalog lot entries include a description of every lot and an estimated price range that is our opinion of the price expected at auction. Estimates are a guide for bidders and generally reflect prices recently paid at auction for comparable alcoholic beverage products. Each estimate takes into account, among other things, condition, rarity, quality and provenance (history of ownership, to the extent known). Estimates are determined in advance of the sale and are therefore subject to revision. Buyers should not rely upon estimates as a prediction of actual selling prices.

Estimates do not include Buyer's Premium or sales tax. Certain lots may be noted with "Estimate on Request" instead of a printed value in the catalog. Please contact a Zachys specialist for further information and bidding assistance.

Buyers Premium

A 24.5% Buyer's Premium (exclusive of sales tax) will be added to the successful bid price of each lot purchased and is payable by Buyer, together with all applicable sales tax, as stated in the Conditions of Sale.

Reserves

Unless otherwise indicated, all lots are sold subject to a reserve. A reserve is the confidential minimum price established between Zachys and the Consignor. The reserve will not exceed the low estimate for the lot. If any lot in the catalog is not subject to a reserve, the lot will be identified by the symbol(s) next to the lot number.

Examination of Wines

Zachys endeavors to select quality wines for auction and uses leading reputable expert(s) to assist Zachys in examining wines for auction. However, to the fullest extent permissible by law, Zachys and any Consignor disclaim any liability arising out of any description or error or omission in any description or any decision by the Buyer to rely on Zachys or any Consignor. Prospective Buyers are urged and advised to examine any lots carefully prior to the auction at our temperature-controlled warehouse and can do so by appointment. Please contact Zachys at +1.914.448.3026, +852.5803.8244 or +44.20.34758455 to set up an appointment.

Bidder Registration

No person shall bid or buy in any auction (or be shipped any property bought in any auction) who has not agreed (either in writing or electronically) to be bound by the Conditions of Sale and this Buying & Bidding Information. If a prospective Buyer has not previously bid with Zachys, a government issued photo identification (such as National Identity Card or Passport) may be required prior to registration for any sale.

If a business organization registers to bid in an auction, a Business Registration or a Certificate of Incorporation and/or proof of director may be required in order to obtain a paddle. First time Buyers may settle invoices by wire transfer or check only. Zachys requires front and back copies of all credit cards for new Buyers along with picture identification.

Prospective Buyers are asked to supply a bank reference to register for the auction. To avoid delay in the release of purchases, please pre arrange check or credit approval through our Finance Department at +1.914.874.8034, +852.5803.8244 or +44.20.34758455.

All bidders who wish to attend the auction are asked to preregister for a paddle at least two business days in advance of the auction. If you plan to attend the auction, a Bidder Pre Registration Form is provided in this catalog or at zachys.com. Complete and either fax the form to +1.914.874.8034, +852.5803.8244 or +44.20.34758455 or email the form to bid@zachys.com or asia@zachys.com at least two business days prior to the auction. Bidders should arrive at least 30 minutes before the scheduled sale of the lot on which they plan to bid to retrieve a paddle.

Bidding

Lots are auctioned in consecutive numerical order, as they appear in the catalog. The auctioneer will accept bids from (i) those present in the saleroom, (ii) absentee bidders participating by telephone, online or by written bid provided to Zachys at least 24 hours prior to the first and session of the auction, or (iii) live over the internet. The auctioneer may also execute bids on behalf of the Consignor's reserve; however, under no circumstances will the auctioneer place any bid on behalf of the Consignor at or above the reserve. The auctioneer will not identify bids placed on behalf of the Consignor. Prospective Buyers who have registered to bid by more than one method (for example, both as an in-saleroom and absentee bidder) must monitor all of their bidding activities (including in-saleroom bids, absentee bids, and online bids) to prevent bidding against themselves. Subject to the section headed "Right of Cancellation" in the Conditions of Sale (in the case of consumers only), for all Zachys live and online auctions, all bids are final and will not be cancelled...

Bidding by Zachys

Zachys reserves the right to bid on any lot on its own behalf, subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to all other Bidders.

Parcel Lots

A parcel is a sequence of lots carrying the same estimates and consisting of the same type, quantity and bottle size. In this sale the Buyer of the first lot of a parcel will have, at the discretion of the auctioneer, the option to take any or all further lots in the parcel for the same price. If the option is not exercised on all lots in the same parcel, the auctioneer will open bidding on the next unsold lot and offer the Buyer of that lot the option to take any or all of the remaining lots in the parcel sequence. Bidding shall continue in the same manner until all lots in the parcel have been offered and declared sold or unsold by the auctioneer. Live Online bidders who purchase the first lot in a parcel will be sent a message requesting that they choose how many additional lots in the parcel they would like to purchase. If the Live Online bidder does not respond to the message, the auctioneer will open the next unsold lot in the sequence.

Bids should be placed on the first lot in a parcel. In the event that a bid is placed on a subsequent lot, Zachys will move the bid to the first lot in the parcel. An unsuccessful bid on the first lot in a parcel will be carried to the next lot and executed on that lot. If unsuccessful again, the bid will be carried to the next lot in the parcel until all lots have been offered.

Online, Absentee, & Telephone Bids for Live Auctions

Please note: Zachys offers the following services as a convenience to clients. Zachys is not responsible for any error in connection with or failure to execute absentee, telephone or online bids.

Online Bids

Live auctions will open for bidding on our website at www.auction.zachys.com approximately 3-4 weeks before the scheduled live auction date. Bids may be submitted online during this period.

There are two ways to bid online: (i) submit the starting/next bid or (ii) submit a maximum bid. To simplify the bidding process, Zachys uses predetermined bidding increments. If a maximum bid is submitted, bids will be placed on your behalf only as much as is required to ensure you remain the highest bidder (up to your maximum bid). In cases when two equivalent maximum bids are submitted, the earlier one will hold.

All bids submitted online are immediately executed. You cannot cancel a bid once it has been submitted. You may, however, adjust your maximum bid while it is higher than the current standing bid.

Estimates and Bid amounts may be shown in a secondary currency, shown in parentheses (), by the user selecting a preferred viewing currency on the website. Please note these values are only an estimate, based on recent exchange rates, and all bids as well as final payments will be conducted in the sale's primary currency.

Prospective Buyers may also bid during the live auction on our website at www.auction. zachys.com.

By registering and bidding on the internet, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale. Zachys assumes no responsibility for disputes or errors arising from online bid activity. In the event of a dispute, the auctioneer's declaration of winning bid and paddle number shall be determinative. In the event of communication delays or failures, the auction will not be stopped. Live online bidders should consider providing Zachys with emergency absentee bids.

Absentee Bids

If you are unable to attend the auction in person and wish to place bids, you may give Zachys instructions in writing to bid on your behalf. Zachys' representatives will then try to purchase the lot or lots of your choice for the lowest price possible, taking into account the reserve price and other bids. This service is free and confidential. To place absentee bids, use the form provided herein or at https://auction.zachys.com/. Be certain to accurately record the lot numbers and the highest hammer price you are willing to pay for the lot.

Please note: Your bid amount does not include Buyer's Premium or applicable sales tax. Buyer's Premium and applicable sales tax will be added to the hammer price of each lot.

Absentee bids must be submitted in consecutive numerical order, or they will not be executed. In addition, please use the bid increments included on the absentee bid form. If bids are submitted incorrectly, Zachys will round your bid up to the next increment. Please place bids as early as possible and at least 24 hours prior to the start of the first session of the auction. In the event of identical bids, the earliest bid received will take precedence. By registering and submitting absentee bids, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale.

Telephone Bids

Prospective Buyers may bid by telephone during the live sale. Telephone bids are accepted only at Zachys' discretion and at the prospective Buyer's risk. Because of limited phone lines in the saleroom, Zachys must confirm arrangements for this service at least 48 hours prior to the start of the first session of the auction. At Zachys' discretion, telephone bids may be limited to lots with a value above HK$16,000 or US$2,000 and may be recorded. By submitting a telephone bid, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale.

Bidding in Online Auctions

Bids can be submitted anytime during the course of an online auction on our website at www.auction.zachys.com.

There are two ways to bid: (i) submit the starting/next bid or (ii) submit a maximum bid.

To simplify the bidding process, Zachys uses predetermined bidding increments. If a maximum bid is submitted, bids will be placed on your behalf only as much as is required to ensure you remain the highest bidder (up to your maximum bid). In cases when two equivalent maximum bids are submitted, the earlier one will hold.

All bids submitted online are immediately executed. You cannot cancel a bid once it has been submitted. You may, however, adjust your maximum bid while it is higher than the current standing bid.

Estimates and Bid amounts may be shown in a secondary currency, shown in parentheses (), by the user selecting a preferred viewing currency on the website. Please note these values are only an estimate, based on recent exchange rates, and all bids as well as final payments will be conducted in the sale's primary currency.

By registering and bidding on the internet, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale. Zachys assumes no responsibility for disputes or errors arising from online bid activity.

Taxes

Buyers are responsible for the payment of any tax, tariff, duty or other fee which Zachys may be required by law to charge or remit to any authority in respect of or in connection with the sale.

All bids placed by Buyers are deemed to be submitted exclusive of any sales tax including United Kingdom value added tax and/or any other applicable tax of a similar nature, which shall (if required) be payable by the Buyer at the appropriate rate. Applicable VAT or sales tax is charged on the successful bid price, Buyer's Premium, and any other applicable charges on any other property purchased by the Buyer from Zachys unless Buyer has a valid exemption therefrom. All such taxes shall be paid by Buyer at the time of delivery to Buyer at Zachys' licensed location.

Buyers claiming exemption from sales, use or other tax must provide Zachys with documentation, which, in Zachys' sole discretion and judgment, is satisfactory evidence of such exemption, prior to the release of property to the Buyer. Buyers claiming such exemption who are licensed dealers of alcoholic beverages must submit resale certificates and a copy of their valid licenses to Zachys prior to registering for the sale. The following information is intended to give general advice to buyers on the VAT and certain other potential tax implications of purchasing at Zachys wine auctions.

Reference to the following VAT symbols shall mean those symbols located beside the lot number or the pre- sale estimates in the catalogue.

Buyers are responsible for the payment of any tax which Zachys may be required by law to charge or remit to any authority in respect of or in connection with the sale. All bids placed by Buyers are deemed to be submitted exclusive of any VAT and/or any other applicable tax or duties, which shall (if required) be payable by the Buyer at the appropriate rate.

The following VAT schemes are applicable to Zachys Europe Limited auctions and deliveries within the European Union, as prescribed by the symbols accompanying each lot in this catalogue:

Property with a † (Single Dagger) Symbol

These lots are sold under normal VAT rules. VAT is applicable over the hammer price, buyer's premium and any additional charges (if applicable) at a VAT rate prescribed by law. The goods under † do not qualify for a VAT margin scheme. Terms of delivery and any corresponding VAT charges will be discussed with the buyer after the auction on an individual basis.

Property with a ◆ (Black Diamond) Symbol

These lots remain in bond (i.e. not in free EU VAT circulation). Please note that VAT is applicable upon release of the goods into EU free circulation - on request of buyer - over the hammer price, buyer's premium and any additional charges (if applicable) at a rate prescribed by law which is added to the amount payable by the buyer. Terms of delivery will be discussed with buyer after the auction on an individual basis with corresponding VAT charges if - upon request of buyer - the goods will be released into EU free circulation.

Property with a $\triangle$ (Open Triangle) Symbol

These lots are subject to a "margin scheme", whereby only the buyer's premium and additional charges are taxed with VAT. The rate of buyer's premium including VAT on lots with this symbol is equal to 29%. Buyers eligible for the margin scheme may also opt for the application of regular VAT rules, for example, in case of a delivery of the goods outside the European Union or a delivery within the European Union to a VAT registered buyer. The enhanced buyer's premium amount will be reflected on the buyer invoice. Terms of delivery and any corresponding VAT charges will be discussed with the buyer after the auction on an individual basis.

All questions regarding tax and exemptions should be directed to Zachys Finance Department at +44.20.34758455, +852.5803.8244 or +1.914.874.8034.

Owned or Guaranteed Property

Zachys offers property consigned by others for sale at public auction. Occasionally, lots are offered which have in the course of the sale process become the property of Zachys. These lots are identified with the symbol ( next to the lot number.

On rare occasions, Zachys may guarantee a minimum price to the Consignor. Such lots are identified in the catalog by the symbol  $(\mathbb{Z})$  next to the lot number. Guaranteed lots may also be sold subject to a reserve.

Successful Bid

The fall of the auctioneer's hammer indicates the final bid, at which time the Buyer assumes full responsibility for the lot. Successful bidders will be notified and invoiced within a few days of the sale. Successful Buyers will pay the price of the final bid plus a 24.5% Buyer's Premium plus any applicable taxes for each lot purchased.

Payment

For live auction purchases, Zachys will autocharge the credit card on file for invoices up to HK$150,000, US$20,000 or GBP 15,000 within 48 hours of the sale close.

At the end of this 14- or 7-calendar day period (as applicable), Zachys reserves the right to charge the Buyer's credit card on file for any amounts still due. All amounts remaining due after this 14- or 7-calendar-day period will be subject to a 2% per month late charge. In addition, any payments in default after 21 calendar days will incur a penalty equal to 3% of the purchase price. Additional late fees equal to 3% of the total purchase price may be charged for every 14 calendar days past the initial 21-calendarday period. Zachys reserves the right to charge Buyer's credit card and to immediately assess the relevant late payment charges set out above, should payment be past the due date, notwithstanding that the amount of such charge may exceed the maximum amount.

Please submit the Collection & Delivery Form to expedite payment and delivery for auction purchases.

Export/Import Permits

Alcoholic beverage products sold at auction may be subject to laws governing export from the jurisdiction where the auction was held and import restrictions of foreign countries. Buyers should always check whether an export license is required before exporting alcoholic beverage products. It is the Buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any relevant export or import license. A delay in obtaining licenses shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor excuse delay in providing full payment for the lot. Local laws may prohibit the importation of some property and/or may prohibit the resale of some property in the country of importation; no such restriction shall justify the rescission of any sale or delay in making full payment for the lot.

Delivery Restrictions

Prospective Buyers are also reminded that various jurisdictions impose limitations on the quantity of alcoholic beverage products which may be purchased and brought into their jurisdiction by a purchaser from another jurisdiction, without requiring the purchaser, a consignor or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits. Zachys shall not as a condition of sale assume any obligation or bear any responsibility whatsoever for applying for or obtaining the requisite permits or licenses in the event the quantity purchased exceeds said limitations. Therefore, all prospective Buyers are strongly advised to investigate the possibility of such limitations and to determine the manner in which alcoholic beverages shall be brought into the jurisdiction so as to comply with all local requirements.

Shipment of Spirits

Prospective Buyers should be advised there are certain restrictions regarding the shipment of spirits. Many countries and states impose limitations on quantity, high duties, and/or taxes, and prospective Buyers should be aware of export and import restrictions.

Translation

The terms and conditions have originally been drafted in English. In the event that any translation of the terms and conditions is prepared, the provisions of the English version shall prevail.

Conditions of Sale

These Conditions of Sale are Zachys' and the Consignor's entire agreement with the Buyer with respect to the property listed in this catalog. The Conditions of Sale and all other contents of this catalog may be amended by posted notices or oral announcements made during the sale. The property will be offered by Zachys as agent for the Consignor, unless the catalog indicates otherwise. By participating in an auction, you agree to be bound by these terms and conditions.

This catalog endeavors to describe the property listed herein accurately. However, save as otherwise expressly set out in these Conditions of Sale, and to the fullest extent permissible by law, Zachys and the Consignor shall not be liable for any such description and expressly disclaim any representation or warranty regarding the origin, physical condition, merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, correctness of catalog description, size, quality, condition, rarity, authenticity, attribution, value, importance, provenance, previous storage conditions or historical relevance of any property herein. Zachys further retains the absolute right to amend at any time and in any manner any description of any property contained in any catalog, and shall take reasonable steps to inform Buyers of such change prior to the conclusion of any purchase. Classifications in the text are for identification purposes only and based on standard sources. Buyers must make appropriate allowances for natural variations in ullages, conditions of cases, labels, corks and wine. Each statement contained in any catalog and each other statement, whether oral or written, and whether made at an auction or in an advertisement, bill of sale, addendum, posting, notice, announcement or otherwise, is a statement of opinion only and (subject to the next sentence) shall not be relied upon by any Buyer or otherwise be deemed a warranty or representation.

The previous sentence does not apply to the sale of goods acting as consumers in the United Kingdom - Zachys is under a legal duty to ensure that such goods are in conformity with their description. Images appearing in this catalog or elsewhere are for illustrative purposes only and may not be relied upon to reveal imperfections in any products. Zachys and the Consignor make no representation or warranty, express or implied, as to whether the Buyer acquires any copyright or other reproduction rights in any property. To the fullest extent permissible by law, neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable for errors or omissions in the catalog or any supplemental material. Prospective Buyers are urged and advised to inspect the property before the auction, including the cases, labels, corks and wines, and must satisfy themselves by inspection or other means as to all considerations pertinent to any decision to place any bid, EACH PRODUCT AND EACH LOT HEREIN IS SOLD "AS IS," AND, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMISSIBLE BY LAW. BUYERS EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM ANY RELIANCE ON ZACHYS, THE CONSIGNOR, OR THE CATALOG. No provision of the Buyer & Bidding Information or these Conditions of Sale shall limit or exclude Zachys' or the Consignor's liability for: (i) fraud; (ii) fraudulent misrepresentation; or (iii) death or personal injury arising from its negligence.

The purchase price payable by the Buyer ("Purchase Price") will be the sum of the final bid price (the "Hammer Price"), the Buyer's Premium and the Protection Fee, when applicable, together with any applicable sales tax. The Buyer's Premium is 24.5% of the Hammer Price. The Protection Fee is 1% of the Hammer Price plus the Buyer's Premium.

Zachys reserves the right to withdraw any property or cancel any sale before or at the sale and shall have no liability whatsoever for such withdrawal or cancellation.

Zachys reserves the right to reject any bid. The highest bidder acknowledged by the auctioneer will be the Buyer. In the event of any dispute between bidders, or any other issue with respect to the bidder, the auctioneer will have absolute discretion to determine the successful bidder, to continue the bidding, to cancel the sale or to reoffer and resell the property in dispute. If any dispute arises after the sale, Zachys' sale record is conclusive.

In its sole discretion, Zachys may accept and execute absentee bids (written bids submitted to Zachys prior to the sale), telephone bids and internet bids as a convenience to clients who are not present at auction.

Unless otherwise indicated, all lots in this catalog are offered subject to a reserve, which is the minimum price the Consignor is willing to accept. This amount is confidential and will not exceed the low presale estimate. Lots not subject to a reserve are identified with the symbol (d) next to the lot number. Zachys shall act to protect the reserve by bidding through the auctioneer. The auctioneer may open bidding on any lot below the reserve by placing a bid on behalf of the Consignor. The auctioneer may continue to bid on behalf of the Consignor up to the amount of the reserve, either by placing successive bids or by placing bids in response to other bidders.

Title to the offered lot passes to the Buyer upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer and the announcement by the auctioneer that the lot has been sold, subject to compliance by the Buyer with all other Conditions of Sale and the Buying & Bidding Information.

The Protection Fee is 1% of the hammer price plus the Buyer's Premium for all arranged deliveries of purchased property. In return for payment of the Protection Fee, purchased property will be protected against breakage, loss, theft or fire and other losses as covered by Zachys' insurance while in transit to the Buyer's declared point of destination. If Buyer elects to decline the protection afforded by the Protection Fee, Buyer thereupon assumes full risk and responsibility for the lot while in transit.

No property may be removed from Zachys' premises until Buyer has paid the Purchase Price in full plus all other fees and taxes (inclusive of any taxes due in the location of the auction on Buyers who are not residents of such location) and has satisfied such terms as Zachys, in its sole discretion, shall require. Zachys reserves the right to withhold all property until such time as all outstanding amounts are paid in full from purchases from any prior auction(s). Upon receipt of full payment, Zachvs will issue a Release Order, which must be presented in order for Zachys to release purchases made at auction. Subject to the foregoing, all lots are to be paid for no later than 4:30 PM (local time at the place of the auction) on the fourteenth calendar day following the live sale, and removed from Zachys' premises at Buyer's expense no later than 30 calendar days after the date of sale. If payment is not made within 14 calendar days of purchase for live sales and 7 calendar days of purchase for net sales, Zachys reserves the right to impose a late charge of up to 2% per month of the Purchase Price, in addition to any other rights and remedies available by law to Zachys. Any payments in default after 21 calendar days of purchase will incur a penalty equal to 3% of the Purchase Price. Additional late fees equal to 3% of the Purchase Price may be charged for every 14 calendar days past the initial 21-calendar-day period. If Buyer fails either to timely remove the purchased lots from Zachys' premises or make timely arrangements with New York Fine Wine Storage or Newcorp Logistics to store the purchased lots, Zachys may transfer such property to a public warehouse for the account, and at the risk and expense, of Buyer, If a lot has not been collected within 30 calendar days of the date of sale and Zachys does not transfer the uncollected property to a public warehouse, Buyer will be liable to Zachys for interest, storage fees, and handling charges.

Zachys is not responsible for acts or omissions by itself or others in packing or shipping, whether or not the carrier or packer is recommended by Zachys. Packing and handling of purchased lots are entirely at the risk of Buyer. Zachys may, at the request and direction of Buyer and for an administrative fee, make arrangements for the consolidated shipment by common carrier of the purchased lots, provided that Zachys is not liable in any way therefore.

If Buyer fails to comply with any of these Conditions of Sale, Buyer will be in default and Zachys may avail itself of all remedies available by law, including, without limitation, the right to (i) hold such defaulting Buyer liable for the Purchase Price including all fees, charges and expenses, (ii) cancel the sale of that lot and any other property sold to Buyer, (iii) resell the property without Reserve at public auction or privately on reasonable notice to the Buyer, (iv) pay the Consignor an amount equal to the net proceeds payable in respect of the amount bid by the defaulting Buyer and then resell the property to a third party without Reserve at public auction or privately on reasonable notice to such Buyer, and/or (v) take such other action as Zachys deems necessary or appropriate. If Zachys resells the property pursuant to clause (iii) or (iv) above, the defaulting Buyer shall be liable for the payment of any deficiency between the Purchase Price and the price obtained upon resale pursuant to clause (iii) and (iv) above and all costs and expenses, including, without limitation, warehousing, the expenses of both sales, reasonable attorneys' fees, commissions, incidental damages and all other charges due hereunder. In the event that such Buyer pays a portion of the Purchase Price for any or all lots purchased, Zachys shall apply the payment received to such lot or lots that Zachys, in its sole discretion, deems appropriate. Any Buyer who fails to comply with these Conditions of Sale will be deemed to have granted Zachys a security interest in, and Zachys may retain as collateral security for such Buyer's obligation to it, any property in Zachys' possession owned by such Buyer. Zachys shall have the benefit of all rights of a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code or applicable law adopted in the jurisdiction where the auction is held.

Payment will not be deemed to have been made in full until Zachys has collected good funds. In the event Buyer fails to pay any or all of the Purchase Price for any lot within 30 calendar days of sale and Zachys nonetheless elects to pay the Consignor any portion of the sale proceeds, Buyer acknowledges that Zachys shall have all of the rights of the Consignor to pursue the Buyer for any amounts paid to the Consignor, whether at law, in equity, or under these Conditions of Sale.

Notwithstanding any other terms of these Conditions of Sale, if within 3 calendar days of the date of delivery of the property, Buyer notifies Zachys in writing of a claim that any lot is short, ullaged, or has suffered breakage, then Zachys in its sole discretion will decide any such claim as between the Consignor and Buyer and may rescind the sale and refund all or part of the Purchase Price received. This does not affect any other rights of the Buyer at law or under these Conditions of Sale.

Notwithstanding any other terms of these Conditions of Sale, if a Buyer purchased property that is inauthentic and returns such property to Zachys within 90 calendar days of the date of delivery, then Zachys agrees to rescind the sale and refund the Purchase Price received.

The benefit of this Condition of Sale 13 is not assignable and shall be applicable only to the original Buyer of the lot and not to subsequent assigns, buyers, heirs, owners or others who have acquired or may acquire an interest therein.

At its discretion, Zachys will not always cut the bands on original packaging of younger wines. In such cases, Zachys will not accept returns for any issues the Buyer might discover after the band is cut.

Alcoholic beverage products sold at auction may be subject to laws governing export from the jurisdiction where the auction was held and import restrictions of foreign countries. Buyers should always check whether an export license is required before exporting alcoholic beverage products. It is the Buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any relevant export or import license. A delay in obtaining licenses shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor excuse delay in providing full payment for the lot. Local laws may prohibit the importation of some property and/or may prohibit the resale of some property in the country of importation; no such restriction shall justify the rescission of any sale or delay in making full payment for the lot.

Prospective Buyers are also reminded that various jurisdictions impose limitations on the quantity of alcoholic beverage products which may be purchased and brought into their jurisdiction by a purchaser from another jurisdiction, without requiring the purchaser, a consignor or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits. Zachys and Consignor shall not as a condition of sale assume any obligation or bear any responsibility whatsoever for applying for or obtaining the requisite permits or licenses in the event the quantity purchased exceeds said limitations.

Therefore, all prospective Buyers are strongly advised to investigate the possibility of such limitations and to determine the manner in which alcoholic beverages shall be brought into the jurisdiction so as to comply with all local requirements.

For such auctions, Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy against Zachys and/ or the Consignor for any dispute or injury related to the auction or the property listed in the catalog shall be the rescission of the sale and the refund of the original Purchase Price paid for the lot. This remedy shall be in lieu of any other remedy which might otherwise be available to Buyer as a matter of law or at equity, and neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable, in whole or in part, for any indirect, special, punitive, inci- dental or consequential damages, including, without limitation, loss of profits.

For auctions that are held in the District of Columbia, the respective rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the Conditions of Sale and the conduct of the auction shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the District of Columbia. By participating in an auction, whether in person or by agent, absentee bid, telephone bid, online bid or other means, the Buyer irrevocably agrees that the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim (including noncontractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with these Conditions of Sale, the Buyer & Bidding Information or their subject matter or formation. For such auctions, Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy against Zachys and/or the Consignor for any dispute or injury related to the auction or the property listed in the catalog shall be the rescission of the sale and the refund of the original Purchase Price paid for the lot. In the event of any dispute relating to any purchases made online, the Buyer may refer to guidance regarding online alternative dispute resolution published by the National Trading Standards at www.nationaltradingstandards. uk/contact.

All offers and sales of alcoholic beverage products by Zachys are subject to the local laws governing the sale of alcoholic beverage products in the jurisdiction in which the auction takes place.

18

District of Columbia and New York State law requires that Buyers of alcoholic beverages must be at least 21 years of age. Hong Kong and English law requires that Buyers of alcoholic beverages must be at least 18 years of age. Buyers should observe and comply with the applicable laws relating to the purchase of alcoholic beverages in the jurisdiction where the auction is held. By participating in the auction, each Buyer represents and warrants to Zachys that he, she or it has the legal capacity to purchase, receive, and possess any lot purchased.

Zachys does not ship alcoholic beverage products. As an accommodation to Buyers, Zachys may arrange to have property packed, insured and delivered at Buyer's expense and direction, but (other than as provided in Condition of Sale 8) Zachys shall have no liability or obligation for shipping alcoholic beverage products. Zachys makes no representation, and assumes no obligation, with respect to the legality of shipment of alcoholic beverage products into any jurisdiction. Zachys urges all Buyers to investigate and understand the alcoholic beverage products shipping laws and regulations of the jurisdiction to which they intend the alcoholic beverage products to be shipped prior to the purchase of alcoholic beverage products at auction.

By participating in the auction, Buyer agrees with Zachys and the Consignor that these Conditions of Sale, together with any instrument captioned (i) Buying & Bidding Information and (ii) General Catalog Notes published by Zachys and in effect from time to time and which are incorporated herein by reference as part of this Condition of Sale, shall become the legal, valid, and binding obligation of the Buyer, enforce- able in accordance with their terms by Zachys and the Consignor (who is both a party hereto and, with respect to portions hereof between Buyer and Zachys, an intended third-party beneficiary).

In the event any one or more of the provisions, or any part or parts of a provision, of these Conditions of Sale and/or the Buying & Bidding Information is determined to be invalid or unenforceable in any respect, the validity and enforceability of all remaining provisions and parts of provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired.

If there is any inconsistency between the English and translated version of the General Catalog Notes, the Buying & Bidding Information, the Conditions of Sale or all other relevant documents, forms, website or emails, the English version shall prevail.

General Catalog Notes

Level/Ullage Descriptions & Interpretations

- IN Into Neck: Excellent for a wine of any age.
- BN Bottom Neck: Excellent for a wine of 10 years or older.
- VTS Very Top Shoulder: Normal for any wine 10 years or older.
- TS Top Shoulder: Normal for any wine 25 years or older.
- JBTS Just Below Top Shoulder: Normal for any wine 30 years or older.
- US Upper Shoulder: Slight natural reduction through easing of cork and evaporation through cork and capsule. Very good for any wine over 40 years old. Excellent for any wine over 50 years of age.
- UMS Upper-Mid Shoulder: Good for any wine 50-60 years of age.
- MS Mid Shoulder: Probably some weakening of the cork. Very good for wines over 50-60 years of age. Estimates usually take this into account.
- LS Low Shoulder: Some weakening of cork acceptable if wine or label is exceptionally rare or interesting.

Because of the slope of shoulder, it is impractical to describe levels of Burgundy-shaped bottles as into neck, etc. Wherever appropriate, the level between capsule and wine will be measured and cataloged in centimeters.

The condition and drinkability of Burgundy are less affected by ullage than its equivalent from Bordeaux. For example, a 5 to 7cm. ullage in a 50 year old Burgundy can be considered normal, indeed good for that age; and 3.5 to 4cm., excellent for that age.

Champagne bottle measurements are done from the bottom of the foil to the level of the wine.

Label & Capsule Conditions

Labels and capsules can become soiled, stained, or otherwise marked, especially with wines over 20 years of age. Unless otherwise noted, label conditions will be appropriate for age, but Buyers should note that normal staining, discoloration or other conditions may not be noted if such conditions are appropriate for the age of the label. Potential Buyers are invited to make appointments to inspect wines personally.

Special Notices

Though every effort is made to describe or measure the levels of older vintages, corks over 20 years old begin to lose their elasticity and levels can change between cataloguing and sale. Old corks have also been known to fail during or after shipment. We therefore repeat that there is always a risk of cork failure with old wines, and Zachys assumes no responsibility for this.

Under no circumstances can an adjustment of price or credit be made after delivery, except as provided in Paragraph 13 of the Conditions of Sale in this catalog.

Unless otherwise stated, Bordeaux are Château bottled.

It is Zachys' general policy to describe levels for vintages prior to 1990. Unless otherwise noted, ullage levels will be appropriate for age.

At Zachys discretion, we will not always cut the bands on original packaging of younger wines. In such cases all wines are sold AS IS and will not accept returns for any issues the buyer's might discover after the band is cut.

At times, bottle numbers will be covered in photos to protect consignor anonymity.

Delivery Charges

The following information is intended to give general advice to buyers on the VAT and certain other potential tax implications of purchasing at Zachys wine auctions. Reference to the following VAT symbols shall mean those symbols located beside the lot number or the pre-sale estimates in the catalogue.

Buyers are responsible for the payment of any tax which Zachys may be required by law to charge or remit to any authority in respect of or in connection with the sale. All bids placed by Buyers are deemed to be submitted exclusive of any VAT and/ or any other applicable tax or duties, which shall (if required) be payable by the Buyer at the appropriate rate.

The following VAT schemes are applicable to deliveries within the European Union, as prescribed by the symbols accompanying each lot in this catalogue:

PROPERTY WITH A $\dagger$ (SINGLE DAGGER) SYMBOL

These lots are sold under normal VAT rules. VAT is applicable over the hammer price, buyer's premium and any additional charges (if applicable) at a VAT rate prescribed by law. The goods under † do not qualify for a VAT margin scheme. Terms of delivery and any corresponding VAT charges will be discussed with the buyer after the auction on an individual basis.

PROPERTY WITH A ◆(BLACK DIAMOND) SYMBOL

These lots remain in bond (i.e. not in free EU VAT circulation). Please note that VAT is applicable upon release of the goods into EU free circulation - on request of buyer - over the hammer price, buyer's premium and any additional charges (if applicable) at a rate prescribed by law which is added to the amount payable by the buyer. Terms of delivery will be discussed with buyer after the auction on an individual basis with corresponding VAT charges if - upon request of buyer - the goods will be released into EU free circulation.

PROPERTY WITH A $\triangle$ (OPEN TRIANGLE) SYMBOL

These lots are subject to a "margin scheme", whereby only the buyer's premium and additional charges are taxed with VAT. The rate of buyer's premium including VAT on lots with this symbol is equal to 29%. Buyers eligible for the margin scheme may also opt for the application of regular VAT rules, for example, in case of a delivery of the goods outside the European Union or a delivery within the European Union to a VAT registered buyer. The enhanced buyer's premium amount will be reflected on the buyer invoice. Terms of delivery and any corresponding VAT charges will be discussed with the buyer after the auction on an individual basis.

Buyers should always check whether an export license is required before exporting alcoholic beverage products. It is the Buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any relevant export or import license. A delay in obtaining licenses shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor excuse delay in providing full payment for the lot. Local laws may prohibit the importation of some property and/or may prohibit the resale of some property in the country of importation; no such restriction shall justify the rescission of any sale or delay in making full payment for the lot.
