Fine & Rare Wines

It's hard to believe, but June is the busiest sales month Zachys has ever had. We've had more auctions, and sold more bottles of fine wine, than ever before.

Between our amazing single-owner eAuctions, restaurant auctions, Hong Kong auctions (auctioneered from New York!), our first single-owner California-only sale, and our multi-vendor auctions, supply and demand remain steady, and prices are strong. This finale auction of the spring season caps off a crazy June, and I'm delighted to report that the fall is shaping up to be just as busy.

Now let's talk about the amazing wines in this auction!

One of the coolest lots I've seen in a while is the "Yquem Assortment Case" (lot 119). Why isn't Yquem on every catalog cover? This assortment case back to 1934 would be one of the greatest sweet wine tastings ever. Of course, there's another great assortment in the sale, or assortment I should say: 1990 DRC (lot 120). This one continues to be at the top of every collector's wish list.

This auction catalog is also filled with DRC, Rousseau, Roumier, Coche-Dury, white rarities like Ramonet Montrachet (in jero no less) , a boatload of Cuvee Cathelin, the Loire Valley gem Asteroide, Screaming Eagle, and one of the rarest Bourbons we've ever sold: AH Hirsch 19 year old.

We can't be with you at Smith & Wollensky this time, but we've quickly pivoted to our "live streaming only" format, and many of you have loved it. Who doesn't want to bid on Rousseau in their pajamas?! Thank you for making this season an amazing one at Zachys. In every great challenge there is opportunity and I thank you for allowing the Zachys team to serve you. I can't wait to share a great bottle or three with you soon enough!

Until then, stay safe,

Jeff Zacharia

JAYER, DRC, & CUVÉE CATHELIN CHAVE

————— from a —————

MANHATTAN COUPLE

(LOTS 1-61)

I have personally had the pleasure of knowing this amazing wine collecting couple for over a decade. Of course, they started acquiring Jayer long before I was in the picture, but it has been amazing to help them buy and sell on multiple occasions over these years. I have personally been in their wine cellar and the word bunker is an insult. Equipped with a state-of-the-art security, temperature and yes, vibration sensor (what else do you expect from a leading engineer and tech entrepreneur), this is one of the best NYC wine cellars I have ever been in. I've also had the pleasure of attending several wine events and dinners with them where we sampled many bottles from their collection; the wine has always shown perfectly!

If you're into Roumier, Rousseau, DRC, Coche, Dujac and Chave then these next 60 lots or so might make your head explode. It's not even worth listing the "highlights" in this intro as every lot that follows deserves that indication. So, flip through the next couple of pages and tell your CFA to transfer funds to your wine spending account; what follows will excite any wine lover.

BORDEAUX

Pétrus 1961

Pomerol

upper mid shoulder, bin-soiled and damp-stained label, importer tag adhered to label

"As banal as it sounds, it was fundamentally a delicious mature Pétrus of staggering beauty, a wine that articulates its age and vintage and place it was born with haunting clarity...99." WA 10/16.

1 1 bottle US$5000-7500

Pétrus 1996

Pomerol

lightly scuffed label, lightly wine-stained label

"...monolithic, foursquare wine...with earth, pain grille, and coffee scents. Full-bodied and muscular, with high levels of tannin, and a backward style...92." WA 4/99.

2 1 bottle US$1500-2400

BURGUNDY

DOMAINE DE LA ROMANÉE-CONTI

HENRI JAYER

It is interesting to reflect upon the fact that in many ways Henri Mayer is portrayed as a modernizer in Burgundy, as many of the techniques that he pioneered in the region have been embraced by legions of vigneron, but in many respects he represented a return to a very traditional approach to winemaking. His emphasis on viticultural practices and the meticulous care that he gave to his vineyards are simply the most obvious facets of his traditional methodology. Henri Mayer revolutionized winemaking during the course of his career. Amongst his very many accomplishments was his emphasis on limiting yields in the vineyard, allowing the cooled must to macerate for a few days prior to the onset of alcoholic fermentation to allow colors to set and adding to the aromatic complexity in the finished wine and bottling the wine unfinned and unfiltered. He always spoke of the importance of treating the wine gently during the fermentation and élevage process, which he likened to “moving a sleeping baby who must be carried to its bed from the sofa upon which it has fallen asleep.” He also was a proponent of one hundred percent new oak for his wines. This was the one precept of his winemaking technique that cannot be described as traditional, and it is the one most often cited by modern winemakers when they seek to sprinkle a little of the “fairy dust” of Mayer inspiration on their own wines. There is little doubt that the concept that a Grand Cru “deserves to be raised in one hundred percent new oak” that is often heard in Burgundy these days can be traced back to Henri Mayer and his success with new wood. However, one of the interesting things I have always found about Henri Mayer’s wines was that I have never tasted one that was over-oaked.

THE COLLECTOR'S EYE

(LOTS 62-164)

This collection has at its apex a 1990 DRC Assortment—one of the greatest collector's items in the wine world today. From there, the list of wines is equally rare and special, whether it's DRC from spectacular vintages like 1999 and 2005, or OWCs of Lafite from 1986 and 2003. Not to be missed here is the rare "Yquem Assortment Case," illustrated in your catalog, and one of the rarest lots in the whole auction for those that enjoy the sweet stuff. There are double cases of the 100-point 1986 Mouton, triple cases of the 2001 Yquem, and amazing connoisseurs' wines, like the 1975 Yquem and 2000 La Clusière. And don't get us started on the wines outside of France. There's the rare Taylor Scion, SQN, and a huge vertical of Pingus. All wines were purchased from a reputable NY retailer and never moved from their storage until sale today. This consignor has a huge collection at home and knows he will never get to drink it all so decided to part with the wines in storage.

CHATEAU HAUT-BRION

Haut-Brion has the longest history of all the First Growths. It was even mentioned by Samuel Pepys in his diary entry of April 10, 1663, when he was dining at the Royal Oak Tavern in Lombard Street, London: "...and here drank a sort of French wine called Ho Bryan that hath a good and most particular taste I never met with."

The famous Pontac family set up the estate in the first portion of the sixteenth century. Wealthy and well connected, they had the means to promote the wine in fashionable places, and by the early 1700s it was as well known as a wine of the highest quality.

While parts were split off, the estate stayed with the family until it was passed to Joseph Fumel in 1780. He was largely responsible for creating much of what we see today, including the buildings, the gardens and the general layout of the property. He famously hosted a visit from Thomas Jefferson on May 25, 1787, and became Mayor of Bordeaux three years later.

With its popularity waning under a succession of different owners, the estate was finally put up for auction in 1836, where it was purchased by the Larreau family. Two years later, in 1838, they managed to acquire a further piece of the estate previously lost through inheritance laws.

Although it was included as a First Growth in the 1855 classification of Bordeaux, difficult times lay ahead. A further succession of owners and the depression of the early 1930s forced another sale. This time, successful American financier Clarence Dillon stepped up, and for a little under $200,000 walked away with the estate. It remains in the Dillon family today.

CHÂTEAU MARGAUX

Château Margaux 1982

*Margaux, Premier Cru Classé
original wood case*

eight very top shoulder, two top shoulder, two just below top shoulder, two lightly torn labels

"The palate is medium-bodied, fresh and mineral-laden, that suggestion of candied orange peel on the entry segueing into layers of pure red and black fruit. There is always something effortless about this Château Margaux and the pixilation on the finish is up there with the very best...97." WA 10/16.

82 12 bottles US$6000-9000

Château Margaux 1986

*Margaux, Premier Cru Classé
original wood case*

bottom neck or better

Lot 83: one bin-soiled label

"Yet there is wonderful delineation and focus here. If you seek strictness and classicism in a wine, then this is the place to come, plus there is superb minerality and tension on the ferrous finish...97." WA 12/16.

83 12 bottles US$4000-6000

84 12 bottles US$4000-6000

Château Margaux 1995

*Margaux, Premier Cru Classé

CHÂTEAU D'YQUEM

At Yquem we have Sauternes winemaking at its most perfectionistic. The vines are pruned to yield nine hl/ha – one glass per vine (as opposed to a full bottle in a classified growth red wine chateau). Collection of the grapes is berry by botrytised berry, rather than by bunch or half-bunch elsewhere. The grapes are crushed in a small horizontal hydraulic press in three stages. Unlike in Champagne, for example, the first pressing does not necessarily give the best wine. There is no débouillage before the wine is put into cask. Fermentation and ageing is in new oak, of course, the latter taking place in a splendid underground cellar, constructed in 1987. The assemblage is late and the wine is not bottled for three years or more. Only then is it put on the market...

There is something very special, and indeed very consistent, about Yquem. The wine is more oaky than most in its youth. It is by quite some way the richest, most concentrated, most intense wine of its kind. In great years – I have a marginal preference for 1989 over 1990 and 1988 – it is nectar: the liquid quintessence of concentrated sunbeams, to quote Thomas Love Peacock.

Romanée-Conti Domaine de la Romanée-Conti 2006

Côte de Nuits, Grand Cru

"Charming and precocious from barrel, this is now a little shy at first, but then the rose aroma emerges. Very elegant and refined, yet firm, teasingly hinting at the floral, wild strawberry and cherry notes that will come to the fore in time...97." WS 2012.

130 1 bottle US$11000-16000

Romanée-St-Vivant Domaine de la Romanée-Conti 1999

Côte de Nuits, Grand Cru

includes original wood case

one damp-stained label, three heavily scuffed labels, non-consecutive bottle numbers

RHÔNE

Châteauneuf-du-Pape Deus-Ex Machina Clos St. Jean 2007

Rhône

"It has a serious amount of tannin, but they're still covered by a wealth of fruit, and it's impeccably balanced and doesn't have a hard edge anywhere. It's killer stuff today... it has an additional 10-15 years of prime drinking and will keep even longer...100." WA 2/17.

138 12 bottles US$2400-3600

Côte-Rôtie La Landonne Guigal 2005

Rhône

two 6-pack original wood cases

"The 2005 Côte-Rôtie la Landonne is utterly profound... with phenomenal texture and richness, it has the classic dark fruits, tapenade and meatiness of the Cuvée...100." WA 9/15.

139 12 bottles US$4400-6500

Côte-Rôtie La Mouline Guigal 2005

Rhône

SPAIN

PINGUS

Pingus 2004

Ribera del Duero

Lot 147: 3-pack original wood case

"The 2004 Pingus is a glass-coating opaque purple/black color with a bouquet of Asian spices, incense, lavender, truffle, black cherry, and blackberry that soars from the glass. Dense, rich, and seamless, this is a complete, harmonious offering with no rough edges...100." WA 6/10.

147 3 magnums (1.5L) US$5000-7500
148 6 bottles US$4200-6500

Pingus 2005

Ribera del Duero

original wood case with damaged lid

"It offers up a perfume beginning to develop some complexity, terrific volume and richness on the palate, and a lengthy, pure finish. This is a great wine that should have a 40 year lifespan...99." WA 6/10.

149 12 bottles US$6000-9000

Pingus 2006

Ribera del Duero

"Voluptuous on the palate in a measured way, it has superb balance, layered, complex flavors, ripe tannin that is entirely covered by the fruit...98." WA 6/10.

150 6 bottles US$2400-3600

Pingus 2007

Ribera del Duero

includes original wood case

"The aromatics are more brooding but seriously multifaceted. Smoke, pencil lead, truffle, Asian spices, blackberry, and licorice notes are followed by a chewy, dense, rich, powerful wine with fully integrated oak, savory black fruits, ripe tannins, and a decade of aging potential...98." WA 6/10.

151 6 bottles US$2800-4000

Pingus 2008

Ribera del Duero

6-pack original wood case

"The palate is blessed with a Château Margaux-like sense of symmetry that leads to a tensile, precise finish that carries on for a minute in the mouth. This will turn out to be an awesome Pingus...97." WA 8/12.

152 6 bottles US$2400-3800

Pingus 2009

Ribera del Duero

banded original wood case

"The nose is very perfumed and balsamic, with notes of violets and ripe, juicy fruit, quite high-pitched. The oak is well-integrated into the wine. The palate is very powerful, full-bodied, concentrated but balanced...with abundant but silky tannins...97." WA 6/13.

153 6 bottles US$2400-3800

Pingus 2010

Ribera del Duero

(LOTS 200-482)

It's a pleasure to review an auction offering as complete as this one. At Zachys we are wine lovers. Sure, we love offering a few hundred cases of OWC Bordeaux as much as the next guy (our shipping department loves it too), but collections like this are what really make our hearts melt. Split across this auction and an eAuction component, here are some of the highlights: 1985 Sassicaia (a wine shared by the senior Zachys team last summer to great acclaim), Krug Clos du Mesnil from multiple vintages (including a boatload of the singing 2000), Selosse, Chave's Cuvée Cathelin, Gentaz Côte Rôtie's, Ramonet Montrachet, a DRC RC vertical, Palmer, Mouton, Margaux, Lafite, Haut-Brion, Screaming E, Hill of Grace, and many more. Cases of Maya and Bond? We've got that. We've even got a few bottles of rare Cognac and Scotch thrown in for good measure.

All in all, no collecting stone was left unturned in this cellar. There's something here for everyone, and the common thread is rarity. The collection was stored in professional temperature-controlled conditions.

CHATEAU LAFITE ROTHSCHILD

For as long as anyone can remember, Lafite has been the most highly regarded wine in Bordeaux. From their very first book, published in 1845, Cocks & Feret have listed Lafite first, and it was ranked first in the famous 1855 classification of Bordeaux.

Fite is an old French term meaning small hill, rise or mound; it is from this humble feature in Bordeaux' somewhat bland landscape that France's most esteemed producer takes its name. The château itself is one of the oldest in Bordeaux, with much of it dating from the mid-sixteenth century. It was purchased by the wealthy Ségur family in the seventeenth century, but like much of the region at the time, the land was used for a variety of farming.

Beginning in the 1670s, the Ségurs spent around twenty years converting a large portion of the land to vineyards. With Latour and Calon, as well as Lafite, under their ownership, the Ségurs began to find a market for their wines in London. It was first mentioned in the London Gazette in 1707 and soon became famous: by the early 1730s, it was a favorite of the Prime Minister, Robert Walpole.

Lafite remained in the Ségur family until 1784. It was sold several times, finally to Baron de Rothschild in 1868, by which time there were some seventy-four hectares of vines. It was a new era of industrial wealth and the Rothschild purchase certainly added much celebrity to the area.

COCHE-DURY

Jean-François Coche's name is now murmured with the same respectful awe that is reserved for Henri Jayer. In many ways, he wears a mantle in the pantheon of white Burgundy winemakers that Monsieur Jayer wears amongst the red winemakers. From three-starred Michelin restaurants to the auction floors of New York and London, it is the white wines of Monsieur Coche that are the most ardently sought after. For those Burgundy lovers lucky and clever enough to secure bottles of Coche-Dury wines, the treasures that they are able to lock away in their cellars are a fine hedge against the vagaries of growing old. The white Burgundy crown that rests so easily on the head of Jean-François Coche is a rather remarkable achievement, when one pauses to consider his rather meager vineyard holdings versus the scores of white wine-producing domaines whose holdings are chock full of Grand Crus and illustrious Premier Crus.

The two crown jewels amongst the white wines in the Coche cellar are the Meursault "Perrières" and the Corton-Charlemagne. The Corton-Charlemagne's first release was the 1986 vintage, and it is as fine a bottle of Corton Charlie as one can ever hope to find. It is very slow to unfold, and in any top vintage requires a minimum of ten years of bottle age to really blossom and begin to drink well.

JL CHAVE

Considered widely as the quintessential Hermitage producer, Chave typifies traditionalism in both viticulture and his winemaking philosophy. The Domaine, begun in 1481, has been handed down from generation to generation. While Gerard Chave still maintains a presence, it is his son, Jean-Louis who is at the helm making some of the best wines in France, if not the world over. The family owns eight plots of land on the hill of Hermitage and in a time when single vineyard Cuvées are all the rage, still holds true to the belief that the assemblage of all of the grapes produces a more complex, powerful and artisanal wine. To Jean-Louis the soil differences found in each plot of land profoundly affect production which is why the expression of the blend is superior to the single vineyard. Chave is passionate about allowing the grapes to achieve complete ripeness via a long hang time on the vine and therefore the wines exude profound extraction as well as substantial alcohol. There is also a natural selection of low yielding fruit due to an average vine age of sixty years or more which adds greater intensity to the wines. The vineyards are farmed organically and the horse and plough are utilized to this day!

The Hermitage Rouge is made of 100 percent Syrah while the Blanc is generally eighty percent Marsanne and twenty percent Roussanne. In vinification, contrary to modernist techniques once again, Chave eschews new oak, using only ten percent for the Rouge and mostly old oak and stainless steel for the fermentation and aging of the Blanc. The white Hermitage has the texture and richness of a great white Burgundy with immense complexity and the ability to age substantially. When serving the Blanc, Jean-Louis advises that they are not chilled too much, and are always decanted for a short period. The Rouge is a highlight.

RAREST HIRSCH

Hirsch is one of the rarest Bourbons ever, period. Started in 1989 by Adolph Hirsch, a former Schenley executive, the original barrels were acquired from Pennco, which later was purchased in foreclosure and became Michters. No one knows exactly why Hirsch acquired this Bourbon, but apparently he had no immediate use for it, because he promptly left it for 15 years. Of the 400 barrels he acquired, the 15, 17, 18 and 19 year old Bourbons are far and away the most rare and collectible Bourbons. Only 121 cases of the 19 year old were bottled. To have one offered here is a once-in-a-lifetime offering.

CLASSIC WHITE BURGUNDIES from an IMPORTANT AMERICAN COLLECTION

(LOTS 483-560)

For classic white Burgundies beautifully selected and carefully stored and aged, look no further. The selection of producers is top drawer—Leflaive, Coche Dury, Ramonet, Colin Deléger, Henri Boillot, and Drouhin Laguiche. The number of large formats is impressive, and features twenty jeroboams, including Ramonet Montrachet 1992 and Bâtard-Montrachet 1996. There are also numerous fine examples from one of my favorite white Burgundy vintages of all time—2000. Don't miss the Chevalier-Montrachet Leflaive 2000—not to mention the incredible 1999.

These bottles were removed from long term storage in a massive, custom designed warehouse cellar that's carefully monitored, alarmed, and controlled at 55 degrees Fahrenheit for this auction.

DOMAINE LEFLAIVE

Joseph Leflaive was a very astute purchaser of vineyard land during the first two decades of the twentieth century, so that today the domaine's roster of vineyards is the greatest constellation of white Burgundy patrimony in the Côte de Beaune. These include just under two full hectares in Chevalier-Montrachet, an equal slice in Bâtard-Montrachet, a bit more than a hectare in Bienvenues-Bâtard-Montrachet (out of a total of 2.3 hectares), just over three hectares in the beautiful Premier Cru of Pucelles, three-quarters of a hectare in Combettes, 1.27 hectares in Foliatières, and nearly five hectares in Premier Cru Clavoillon. In 1991, the topping on the cake was added when the domaine purchased a very small, .08 hectare slice of Le Montrachet itself.

BORDEAUX

Château Lafite Rothschild 1961

Pauillac, Premier Cru Classé

one top shoulder, two just below top shoulder, one upper shoulder, two upper mid shoulder, one scuffed label, six lightly damp-stained labels, two with signs of old seepage
"...many 5-star notes - gentle, spicy, silky tannins, a certain delicacy and always great length...It had the sweetness of fully ripe grapes and alcohol, a mouthfilling flavour, very good tannins and acidity. Complete...★★★★★." MB 5/99.

561 6 bottles US$4000-6000

Château Lafleur 2005

Pomerol

original wood case

"Exhibits a complex nose of crushed blackberry, dried flowers and dark chocolate. Full-bodied, with a rich, powerful palate. Tannic and muscular, with great length. Superracy. Builds and goes and goes. So fine and beautiful. Mythic...100." WS 3/08.

562 1 imperial (6L) US$8000-12000

Château Lafleur 2008

Pomerol

banded original wood case

"On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied and very, very soil-driven, with a rock solid core of fruit, ripe tannins, very fine acidity and excellent focus and grip on the very long and well-balanced finish. A classic Lafleur and a magically beautiful bottle of wine...96." JBG 7/11.

563 1 imperial (6L) US$3200-5000

Château L'If 2016

WS 3/02.

570 5 bottles US$2400-3800

Château Lafite Rothschild 2003

Pauillac, Premier Cru Classé

"Fat, rich, opulent and full-bodied with low acidity and stunning seductiveness and complexity, this noble wine possesses a bountiful, generous, heady style. It is just coming into its plateau of maturity where it should hold for 20-25 years...100." WA 8/14.

571 12 bottles US$8000-12000

Château Latour 2003

Pauillac, Premier Cru Classé

Lot 572: two marked labels, four lightly scuffed labels, one scuffed label

Lot 573: two marked labels, four lightly scuffed labels

"...very ripe, but not over-ripe, offers great freshness..."

Dense, thick and unctuously textured, this staggering Latour is undeniably the most sumptuous, opulent wine...100." WA 8/14.

572 12 bottles US$6500-9500

573 12 bottles US$6500-9500

Château Cos D'Estournel 2003

St. Estèphe, Deuxième Cru Classé

"With extraordinary richness, full-bodied, and remarkable freshness, elegance, and persistence, this is one of the finest wines ever made by this estate...98." WA 4/06.

574 12 bottles US$1300-1900

Château Léoville Barton 2003

St. Julien, Deuxième Cru Classé

576 12 bottles US$2000-3000

Château Pavie 2003

St. Emilion, Premier Grand Cru Classé (a)

"...a serious candidate for one of the wines of this rather bizarre, but interesting, vintage...stunning nose...Dense, full-bodied and very succulent and lush...96." WA 8/15.

577 12 bottles US$2200-3200

CHAMPAGNE

Salon Blanc de Blancs Le Mesnil 1979

Champagne

1cm below foil, lightly glue-stained label

"Crisp, fresh, young and alive with pretty toasty, yeasty aromas, delicate lemon, pear and vanilla notes that are still tightly wound, finishing clean and dry. Impressive for its vitality...93." WS 12/89.

578 1 bottle US$1600-2600

CALIFORNIA CAPTIVATION (LOTS 579-629)

No one brings to auction the world's greatest California collections quite like Zachys. Over the years, there have been some greats, most recently the 600,000+ Point Collection in May. California Captivation takes a senior position among these storied collections, with all the Screaming Eagle, Hundred Acre, Shafer and Insignia you'd expect from a legendary California offering. This is just a small parcel of an immense collection and all wines were purchased on release and stored perfectly in a custom-built temperature-controlled home cellar.

CALIFORNIA

HUNDRED ACRE

Proprietor Jayson Woodbridge makes some of the most unique, deeply personal wines in Napa Valley. Very late harvests and minimal intervention in the cellar, including no rackings until bottling, are just some of the choices that inform these wines. Woodbridge's vineyards are in St Helena (Kayli Morgan), the lower part of Howell Mountain (Ark) and Calistoga (Few and Far Between). Woodbridge is less reliant on outside consultants than many of his colleagues, so the wines bear very specific signatures that are unlike those of other wines being made in the Valley. The late harvests give the wines super-ripe fruit that can at times veer towards sweetness, but it is the extreme silkiness and finesse of the tannins that differentiates these wines. Woodbridge believes wines must be ready to go upon release and frowns upon decanting or advance aeration, which he doesn't think should be necessary. As outstanding as these wines can be upon release, the reality is that the wines have also proven to age exceptionally well.

Hedonistically, undeniably and deliciously perfect...100." WA 10/18.

609 3 bottles US$1200-1900

SCREAMING EAGLE

It's rare. It's expensive. And there's a mystique about it. But Screaming Eagle Cabernet Sauvignon is no pretender. It's the real thing, and it deserves to be considered among Napa Valley's prestige wines...

You can't make wine this magnificent without fabulous grapes, and Screaming Eagle clearly comes from a spectacular vineyard...on the east side of Oakville, near the Oakville Crossroad...While ripening Cabernet (and smaller amounts of Merlot and Cabernet Franc) is routinely easy in this area, one of the trademarks of Oakville Cabernet is that the wines often display an herbal quality that manifests itself in a variety of subtleties, including hints of anise, sage, dusty berry, cedar and occasionally a whiff of new leather and tar. You find these shades of herb in Cabernets like Heitz Martha's Vineyard (grown on the west side of Oakville), with its signature minty currant personality, or Groth, which is one of the cooler sites on the valley floor. Screaming Eagle captures the best of all these elements. It also epitomizes exquisite balance, managing both to be enormously complex and concentrated, yet elegantly styled, with a smooth, polished texture.

PRISTINE CALIFORNIA CULTS & FINE EUROPEAN WINES

(LOTS 630-684)

From the cellars of a highly experienced and passionate wine aficionado comes a deep selection of California cult wines, mostly in original packaging, and purchased on release directly from the wineries. The European wines, including three cases of Soldera Riserva, were purchased directly upon import. All wines have been carefully maintained in professional commercial storage and a temperature-controlled mountain home cellar.

HARLAN ESTATE

Harlan Estate, owned by Bill Harlan, is a luxury, world-class, Cabernet Sauvignon-based wine produced from a steep, terraced vineyard on the western side of Napa Valley, high above Napa's famous Martha's Vineyard. Approximately 24 acres are in vine and the yields to date have been very low. Bill Harlan, better-known as one of the principals of Merryvale Vineyards...has only one objective: to produce one of the greatest red wines of California.

The wines are a blend of approximately two-thirds Cabernet Sauvignon and the remainder Cabernet Franc and Merlot. Bob Levy, Merryvale's winemaker and Michel Rolland, the well-known Bordeaux oenologist, are the architects behind these exceptional efforts. Stylistically the wines are the Napa Valley equivalent of a hypothetical La Mission Haut-Brion/Cheval Blanc blend. They are rich, powerful wines with unmistakable elegance, complexity, and purity.

WINES FROM A DEDICATED AND LIFELONG COLLECTOR (LOTS 685-700)

There's nothing quite like listening to this collector spin yarns about the good old days. Back when DRC was a nickel, he used to drink it by the gallon. Those days may be long gone, but this collector's interest in fine wines has remained thankfully intact. The wines in this offering were stored in professional wine storage and some of them even came from Zachys!

THE CELLAR OF BOSTON COLLECTOR GEORGE BUEHLER (LOTS 749-762)

From a longtime collector in the Boston area comes a wide array of fine Burgundy and other gems. The rare Anne Gros Richebourg is a standout in this offering, as is the 1990 RSV from Hudelot-Noëllat, a fan favorite annually at La Paulée. A six pack of 1997 La Tâche shouldn't be missed—those who know The Domaine well know how successful they were in this often-overlooked vintage. And those that love Burgundy will also love the non-Burgundy lot that slipped into the offering: 1964 Mascarello Barolo, eight bottles of it, one for every night of the week and two on Sunday. The wines in this offering were stored in a purpose-built temperature-controlled home cellar and shipped to Zachys in temperature-controlled conditions.

SCHRADER

Fred Schrader began his life as a vintner with one defining goal in mind, to create benchmark Cabernets from the best vineyards in the Napa Valley. Fifteen years later with seventeen 100-point scores under his belt from the likes of Robert Parker, The Wine Advocate and James Laube, The Wine Spectator, Schrader Cellars continues to define itself as one of the best producers of Cabernet in the history of American wine. Receiving more 100-point scores than any other winery in the history of American wine, 2016 marks a special year in the lifetime of Schrader Cellars.

The story of Schrader Cellars began in 2001 when Fred met Thomas Brown, a little known winemaker who moved to California by way of North Carolina. Thomas took the helm of winemaking for Schrader and he and Fred never looked back. Thomas' methods of non-interventionist winemaking were a novel idea at the time throughout the valley. He believed in showing the true colors of a vineyard and when working with Beckstoffer To Kalon fruit he had access to nothing short of the best.

After a few years of working together, Fred and Thomas found themselves harvesting the incredibly concentrated fruit of the 2006 vintage. Fred looks back on this time with happiness as the 2006 vintage was the first 100-point scores that a Schrader wine received. The 2007 and 2008 vintages brought with them another pair of 100-point scores for the Schrader CCS and Schrader Old Sparky. This was the first time in the 32-year history of The Wine Advocate that a wine received three consecutive 100-point scores for the same marque and Schrader did this with two of their wines.
