SCREAMING EAGLE

Fine & Rare Wines & Spirits

Our May auction was a delight to put together. We kick it off with the Executive Cellar: the gift that keeps on giving. We have sold hundreds of hundreds of lots from this collection over the years, and the name has become synonymous with quality all over the world. There's nothing like walking into a collector dinner in Hong Kong and seeing a bottle bearing an "Executive Cellar" sticker. You know you're in for pristine quality.

Another set of lots I'd like to draw your attention to isn't wine at all, it's art. From the private collection of Ed Lauber, who played an integral role in the distribution of Mouton Rothschild in the US, comes a set of framed Mouton labels, signed by the artists that designed them and the Baron himself. Proceeds from these lots will go to CancerCare and are being sold without reserve (lots 162-166).

Starting at lot 178 we have an amazing selection of rare Burgundy from one of our favorite consignors. Rousseau, Leroy, Coche-Dury, Leflaive, Ramonet, PYCM, Raveneau and on.

Elsewhere we have Screaming Eagle, Egon Müller, Emidio Pepe in full cases, the rare DRC Hautes Côtes de Nuits, Clape, Chave, 1978 Giacosa, an amazing Dunn vertical, and many, many more.

A reminder that for all sales ending on May 1 or after, the buyer's premium is 25%.

We look forward to hearing from you soon—bid with confidence!

Sincerely,
Charles

THE EXECUTIVE CELLAR

Part XVIII

(LOTS 1-161)

Part XVIII of the Executive Cellar: a revisiting of the gift that keeps on giving. You probably know the backstory already, but just as a refresher: The Executive is a longtime personal friend of our esteemed president, Jeff Zacharia. All wines here were bought on-release, stored properly and haven't moved until transport for this auction.

This offer is mainly about Bordeaux, many in full OWC and in pristine conditions! The Executive Cellar has made a name for itself at Zachys as being synonymous with quality. Bid with confidence on this collection that's perfect for your own cellar-building!

CHATEAU CHEVAL BLANC

Cheval Blanc has a relatively short history compared with the other top-rank châteaux of Bordeaux. As recently as the 1830s it was still a part of Figeac. A portion of that estate was sold to the Ducasse family, then owners of L'Évangile, and by twenty years later, when a Ducasse married a Fourcard-Loussac, the property was already some thirty-one hectares in size. The estate remained with the Fourcard-Loussac family until part of it was sold to Bernard Arnault and his company, LVMH, in 1998. Today, along with Château d'Yquem, it is fully owned by Arnault and managed by the dynamic Pierre Lurton.

Cheval Blanc, across the road from Pomerol, has distinctive soil makeup: about twenty percent sand, forty percent clay and forty percent gravel. In the gravelly and sandy areas the roots have to work hard to stay alive and often reach depths of seven to eight meters, compared with two to three meters in the clay areas.

Today the roughly thirty-seven hectares of vineyards are planted with sixty percent Cabernet Franc and forty percent Merlot. Yields are typically thirty-five hl/ha, and the annual production of 6500 to 7000 cases is bottled after eighteen to twenty-four months in new oak.

CHÂTEAU HAUT-BRION

Haut-Brion has the longest history of all the First Growths. It was even mentioned by Samuel Pepys in his diary entry of April 10, 1663, when he was dining at the Royal Oak Tavern in Lombard Street, London: "...and here drank a sort of French wine called Ho Bryan that hath a good and most particular taste I never met with."

The famous Pontac family set up the estate in the first portion of the sixteenth century. Wealthy and well connected, they had the means to promote the wine in fashionable places, and by the early 1700s it was as well known as a wine of the highest quality.

While parts were split off, the estate stayed with the family until it was passed to Joseph Fumel in 1780. He was largely responsible for creating much of what we see today, including the buildings, the gardens and the general layout of the property. He famously hosted a visit from Thomas Jefferson on May 25, 1787, and became Mayor of Bordeaux three years later.

With its popularity waning under a succession of different owners, the estate was finally put up for auction in 1836, where it was purchased by the Larreau family. Two years later, in 1838, they managed to acquire a further piece of the estate previously lost through inheritance laws.

Although it was included as a First Growth in the 1855 classification of Bordeaux, difficult times lay ahead. A further succession of owners and the depression of the early 1930s forced another sale. This time, successful American financier Clarence Dillon stepped up, and for a little under $200,000 walked away with the estate. It remains in the Dillon family today.

Vineyards, Winemaking and the Delmas Family

No discussion of the wines of Haut-Brion can be complete without a mention of the Delmas family, who have managed the property since 1923—first George Delmas, then his son Jean-Bernard, and today Jean-Philippe. It is not only unusual but also massively fortunate for Haut-Brion to have the care and attention of such a talented family of technical directors.

Jean-Philippe Delmas is a clever, tirelessly devoted man, and the solid support and financial backing of the Dillon family has enabled him and his team to produce an extremely consistent wine. I always look forward to visiting Château Haut-Brion, not just because the wines are superb and the people great, but also because it is unique and has an important place in the history of Bordeaux.

CHATEAU LAFITE ROTHSCHILD

For as long as anyone can remember, Lafite has been the most highly regarded wine in Bordeaux. From their very first book, published in 1845, Cocks & Feret have listed Lafite first, and it was ranked first in the famous 1855 classification of Bordeaux.

Fite is an old French term meaning small hill, rise or mound; it is from this humble feature in Bordeaux' somewhat bland landscape that France's most esteemed producer takes its name. The Château itself is one of the oldest in Bordeaux, with much of it dating from the mid-sixteenth century. It was purchased by the wealthy Ségur family in the seventeenth century, but like much of the region at the time, the land was used for a variety of farming.

Beginning in the 1670s, the Ségurs spent around twenty years converting a large portion of the land to vineyards. With Latour and Calon, as well as Lafite, under their ownership, the Ségurs began to find a market for their wines in London. It was first mentioned in the London Gazette in 1707 and soon became famous: by the early 1730s, it was a favorite of the Prime Minister, Robert Walpole.

Lafite remained in the Ségur family until 1784. It was sold several times, finally to Baron de Rothschild in 1868, by which time there were some seventy-four hectares of vines. It was a new era of industrial wealth and the Rothschild purchase certainly added much celebrity to the area.

CHATEAU LATOUR

CHÂTEAU MARGAUX

Perhaps the grandest of the Bordeaux châteaux, Château Margaux is the epitome of style and refinement. At Château Margaux one has truly arrived at the heart and soul of Bordeaux, the world's most renowned wine region.

For centuries before the French Revolution, the château was owned by the Lestonnac family. The revolution, though, saw the estate's owners beheaded, and when the heirs were unable to pay the costs of running the château, Margaux was put up for auction.

The successful bidder, the Marquis de la Colonilla, demolished the old château, and in 1802 work began on the grand château we know today. The Château was sold several times until it was acquired by the Ginestets, longtime shareholders who finally became sole owners in 1949, with the purchase financed by the sale of their St Emilion property, Clos Fortet. However, First Growth châteaux are expensive to run, and to finance the operations of the estate, the owner sold off the vineyards of Dufort Vivens in the 1960s and transferred Cos d'Estournel to his sister in 1971. Even those moves, though, were not enough, and collapse of the Bordeaux market in the early 1970s forced Ginestet to sell the château in 1976 to Greek supermarket magnate Andre Mentzelopoulos. A serious oenophile, he was also a major shareholder in the French wine firm, Nicolas.

CHÂTEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD

While Mouton was always a highly regarded wine, a big change came when in 1922, when the twenty-one-year-old Baron Philippe decided to run the Château full-time. An innovator from the start of his tenure, in 1924 he decided that in order to guarantee quality the entire production would be bottled at the Château, and from 1934 he numbered each bottle released. Also, of course, he started the tradition of works of art on Mouton labels, featuring the famous Carlu ram's head from 1924 to 1926, and since a hiatus from then until 1945, each label has either been designed by a major artist or featured a tribute to a significant event in the Château's history.

Perhaps his most significant achievement was persuading the French Minister for Agriculture, Jacques Chirac, that Mouton was and had always been a First Growth that had been wrongly classified. So, in 1973, for the first and only time, a revised edition of the 1855 classification was released with Mouton finally ranked, next to its Pauillac neighbors Lafite and Latour, as a First Growth.

CHÂTEAU LÉOVILLE LAS CASES

The château gets its name from the Marquis de Las-Cases Beauvoise who, upon the dividing up of the vast Léoville estate, ended with the largest portion. Hugh Barton bought a quarter, Baron Poyferré (a relative) ended up with another quarter, and the remaining half went to the Marquis.

As debt accumulated during the earlier part of the twentieth century, the estate was gradually acquired by its then manager, Theophile Skavinski. Jean-Hubert Delon, the estate's present owner, is one of his descendents.

The Wine

Although there are nearly 100 hectares under vine here, it is the fifty-three hectares of Grand Clos with that famous wall and arched entrance that is the primary source of fruit for the grand vin. The vines are planted to seventy percent Cabernet Sauvignon, seventeen percent Merlot and thirteen percent Cabernet Franc. Ageing is in sixty-five percent new oak barriques for fifteen to eighteen months, which just goes to show you don't need three and a half years in 100 percent new oak to make great wine. The second wine, Clos du Marquis, was one of Bordeaux' first when the 1902 vintage debuted.

These are serious wines, as good as any in the Médoc and in many years outperforming its second growth status. This estate could be called "the Latour of St Julien," which is actually not very far from the truth as it does reside right next door to the First Growth!

CHÂTEAU PALMER

The estate was originally known as Château de Gasq, part of the vast holdings of the de Gasq family. When Alexandre de Gasq died early in the nineteenth century, his widow Marie Brunet de Ferriere had no interest in running a chateau, and decided to sell. The buyer was General Palmer, the son of a wealthy MP who joined the army and soon rose to the position of Aide-de-Camp to the Prince Regent. While in France, fighting near the end of Napoleonic wars, he went to Bordeaux where upon his arrival he had a chance meeting with Marie Brunet de Ferriere, then on her way to Paris to sell the chateau. The idea of a wine estate in the area appealed to Palmer and in 1814, just two days after arriving in Bordeaux, Château de Gasq was his.

Soon after that, Palmer's life became very difficult. He inadvertently became involved in a scandal in London that cost him his favor with the Prince Regent and also, in February 1815, resulted in a duel at noon on the outskirts of Paris with another important British commander. From then on he concentrated his efforts on winemaking. Over the next fifteen years he would spend a small fortune expanding the chateau holdings, eventually more than doubling its size. He also changed the name to Château Palmer and began to market it in London.

In 1853 Palmer was purchased by the Pereire family. Successful entrepreneurs and financiers, they had the means to significantly upgrade the estate. First on the agenda was the building of the wondrous chateau we know today, designed by the same architect as the the new Château Pichon Longueville up the road in Pauillac. One does not have to have any architectural grounding to notice the immense similarities between these two buildings.

Unlike many chateaux, Château Palmer entered the twentieth century in fine shape. However, after the war and then the depression, the Pereires were in financial trouble and just prior to the Second World War they sold Château Palmer. With the estate operating at a big loss, and both cellars and vineyards in disrepair, Palmer was purchased by a consortium for almost nothing. Its main members, the Sichel and Mahler-Besse families, bought out their partners over time and by 1982 they owned it outright with one-third and two-thirds ownership respectively.

Today there are again a number of shareholders, but Sichel and Mahler-Besse remain the biggest and still play a very important part in the direction of the Château. The estate is now managed by Thomas Duroux and Technical Director Philippe Delfaut. With their drive and business acumen Palmer remains constantly on the heels of Château Margaux.

SIGNED CHÂTEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD LABELS

from the Private Collection of Ed Lauber, Sold to Benefit

(LOTS 162-166*)

Zachys is delighted to offer, at no reserve, several lots of framed Mouton-Rothschild labels, signed by both Baron Philippe de Rothschild, and the artists who designed them, all from the personal collection of Ed Lauber, Mouton-Rothschild's US importer for decades.

While serving in the army, stationed in Germany, Mr. Lauber became interested in the wines of Europe. After the Army, his first job was in wine and spirits, and he eventually he was hired to help build Baron Philippe de Rothschild's Mouton Cadet Bordeaux brand in the United States. In 1979, he founded the eponymous Lauber Imports. His relationship with the Baron led to a partnership that saw Lauber work on the United States distribution for Mouton Rothschild, Clerc Milon and D'Armhailhac. Part of this job was "introducing" each Mouton-Rothschild's new vintage (and new artist label) to the United States. While traveling with the Baron and the artist that designed the labels, Mr. Lauber would ask that they sign a few labels for his personal collection. The labels in this offering were signed on the release of each vintage by the artist and the Baron, and kept in Mr. Lauber's home until removed for this sale. These aren't just signed labels: they are a unique memento of the introduction of Mouton-Rothschild into the United States market.

When Mr. Lauber passed away in in 2019, his family asked that, in lieu of flowers, donations be made in his honor to CancerCare. In that tradition, proceeds from these lots will also be donated to CancerCare. CancerCare provides professional oncology social workers to give free emotional and practical support for people with cancer, caregivers, loved ones and the bereaved. Learn more about their work at CancerCare.org.

Please inquire about shipping options for signed, framed labels, at auction@zachys.com.

A Further Selection of
EXCEPTIONAL

from one of our most knowledgeable collectors

(LOTS 178-262)

Zachys is honored to be offering a further tranche from a longtime friend and one of our most knowledgeable collectors. Wine lovers will once see an astonishing assortment of white Burgundy featuring multiple lots of Coche-Dury, Lamy, Leflaive, Leroy, Ramonet, and Raveneau as well as DRC reds and Cristal, Krug and magnums of Philipponnat Clos des Goisses.

The consignor keeps detailed records and is meticulous about provenance and storage. The wines in this offering were purchased, for the most part, on release from the most reputable retailers in the United States and Europe. The bottles have been stored in two custom, temperature-controlled cellars, one a professional refrigerated wine storage facility and the other a home wine cellar.

This selection is part of a much larger collection and was recently removed specifically for this auction and delivered to Zachys warehouse in a temperature-controlled reefer.

DOMAINE DE LA ROMANÉE-CONTI

The domaine is known for picking very late, sometimes, as in 1978, later than any other producers. They prune endlessly, make many passes through the vineyards at harvest and sort grapes rigorously both in the vineyard and at the winery. Average age of the vines is around thirty-five to forty-five years with yields typically around thirty hl/ha. The wines are aged in new French oak casks for approximately twenty months. There is usually only one racking and since 1985 the wines from all casks in each cru have been blended together prior to bottling to reduce bottle variation. Recently they have been moving towards biodynamic viticultural practices. Like many of the region's leading growers they have seen concrete evidence of soil and vine health improvement. It's hard to imagine that these wines could get better, but that is what separates them from the rest of the pack: an unrelenting pursuit for perfection in the Pinot Noir grape. In addition to the majestic reds, a white is also produced from a plot in Montrachet.

JEAN-FRANÇOIS COCHE-DURY

Jean-François Coche's name is now murmured with the same respectful awe that is reserved for Henri Jayer. In many ways, he wears a mantle in the pantheon of white Burgundy winemakers that Monsieur Jayer wears amongst the red winemakers. From three-starred Michelin restaurants to the auction floors of New York and London, it is the white wines of Monsieur Coche that are the most ardently sought after. For those Burgundy lovers lucky and clever enough to secure bottles of Coche-Dury wines, the treasures that they are able to lock away in their cellars are a fine hedge against the vagaries of growing old. The white Burgundy crown that rests so easily on the head of Jean-François Coche is a rather remarkable achievement, when one pauses to consider his rather meager vineyard holdings versus the scores of white wine-producing domaines whose holdings are chock full of Grand Crus and illustrious Premier Crus.

The two crown jewels amongst the white wines in the Coche cellar are the Meursault "Perrières" and the Corton-Charlemagne. The Corton-Charlemagne's first release was the 1986 vintage, and it is as fine a bottle of Corton Charlie as one can ever hope to find. It is very slow to unfold, and in any top vintage requires a minimum of ten years of bottle age to really blossom and begin to drink well.

The Coche-Dury Meursault "Perrières" is the other twin titan in the cellar. Many Burgundy lovers, often over a glass of inspired Côte d'Or rouge or blanc, like to banter about which vineyards are worthy of promotion in the appellation contrôlée system if the French were ever to open up the Pandora's Box or reclassification. Almost universally, the vineyard of Meursault "Perrières" is mentioned as clearly worthy of Grand Cru status. If one were to choose and example of why this is the case, one could do no better than a bottle of Coche-Dury Meursault "Perrières". This is a complete wine that quite easily rivals the quality of the Corton-Charlemagne in the cellar. In some vintages the Corton looks to be the better of the two, sometimes the Meursault "Perrières". But in virtually every vintage the Meursault "Perrières" is a long-lived wine of uncompromising brilliance, and well worth the price of admission. There are not many Bâtard-Montrachets or Chevalier-Montrachets that I would trade even up for a bottle of Coche-Dury Meursault "Perrières".

DOMAINE RAMONET

Pierre Ramonet was more than a character. He was, to use the old cliché – but it is true in this instance – a legend in his own lifetime. More or less from scratch, by dint of sheer hard work and a genius for wine, he built up one of the finest white wine domaines in Burgundy. Today the name of Ramonet is synonymous with top Chardonnay. The allocations for bottles are fought over, for every collector considers it his or her right to own some. They sell at auction for astronomical sums whenever they appear. On the rare occasions, as in January 1995 at the Montrachet restaurant in New York, when someone puts on a special vertical tasting and dinner, the tickets – and they are not cheap – are over-subscribed ten times. Ramonet in white is the equivalent of Henri Jay or the Domaine de la Romanée-Conti in red.

FRANÇOIS RAVENEAU

Whichever way you look at these wines they stand up, be it vintage consistency, longevity, intensity of flavor, length and so on- they are just flat out incredible wines and there is nothing else quite like them anywhere. Raveneau's Chablis is now more than ever getting the recognition it deserves and the prices have risen accordingly, but they still represent great values compared to the other top white wines of Burgundy. The only downside is the minute quantities they are typically available in.

History, Vineyards & Winemaking

Domaine Raveneau, today totaling around ten hectares in size, was formed by François Raveneau from small plots passed down from his father and Father-in-law, along with a little land he purchased himself. Today the estate is run by his two sons, Jean-Marie and Bernard, with Jean-Marie taking care of the winemaking duties.

Their cellars, as one might expect from a domaine of such modest acreage, are small and are discreetly located in the village. This is no hi-tech new world winery, but an old-school artisan setup. Dark, cool, and damp with a fine vaulted architectural ceiling, they set the scene appropriately. The secret to these wines is immense care in the vineyards. If ever the term hand-crafted could be applied to wine, it can be here. The wines spend approximately twelve months in barrel, but to retain the benchmark acidity and steeliness the barrels are usually seven to nine years in age, although some percentage of new oak is used. There is a light fining prior to bottling by hand and then the application of the trademark yellow wax capsules.

Domaine Raveneau's vineyard holdings include: Les Clos, Blanchot, Valmur, Bougrots, Montée de Tonnerre, Butteaux, Vaillons, Chapelot, Montmains and Forest. Raveneau's wines are utterly unique, of unquestionable quality and can age as well as a Ramonet or DRC Montrachet. Even for those who don't typically drink white wine, Raveneau's epiphanous Chablis does not disappoint.

FINEST & RAREST LEROY (LOTS 269-271)

This consignor began collecting wine in the mid 1980s and managed to stock up on many of the decade's best vintages from several producers and regions; particularly Leroy. The cases here were purchased from a very reputable source nigh upon release and have rested in the collector's custom-built, temperature and humidity-controlled cellars since.

DOMAINE LEROY

How do you determine great? Is it size? Is it quality? Is it price? Is it 'reputation' (whatever that is)? Is it the amount of media coverage? However you do compute it, the greatest domaines of Burgundy today must be those under the control of Lalou Bize: the Domaine Leroy and her own Domaine d'Auvenay. The estates of Jadot, Faiveley and Bouchard Père et Fils are far larger, that of Romanée-Conti the most splendid in terms of the percentage of Grand Cru terroir, but for the nobility of its wines, pride of place must go to Leroy and to Domaine d'Auvenay. The sheer concentration, depth and intensity Lalou Bize manages to squeeze into her bottles is breathtaking. Lalou, born in Paris, was brought up in Meursault, in the mansion today occupied by her daughter Perrine. "From the word go I was fascinated," she says. "I was a cellar rat, watching and helping the cavistes rack the wines, taste them, bottle them. My mother kept calling me to come out of the cellar and play with my friends like a normal schoolgirl, but as soon as I could I crept back." In 1955 she persuaded her father to let her take over. She was twenty-three. "He gave me carte blanche," she says. "I started as I meant to go on. I bought finished wine, and only that which pleased me."

Lalou is now happy at the Domaine Leroy and on her own. "Look at my vines," she will say. "Look how healthy and comfortable they are." And, being Lalou, she will not fail to point out a neighbor's plot of excessively abundant, uncontrolled growth. "And come and taste the wine." Lalou's wines, according to her, are always 'extra'. The one-time cellar rat is now a master in her own right, and the wines she produces are triumphantly brilliant.

1ST TIER WINES

(LOTS 275-312)

While this collection is concise, it's remarkably dense with first-tier Bordeaux, Champagne, and Cali wines. Of particular note is the five vintage vertical of Petrus starting in 2015, all in OWC and some still banded! There's also full cases of Dom Pérignon, Cristal, and Perrier-Jouët so you can stock up on your bubbles for the 4th of July now. Of course, though, one cannot overlook the Screaming Eagle here in great vintages like 2013.

These wines all hail from a friend of the firm and repeat consignor so bid with confidence!

PETRUS

Petrus today is a little over eleven hectares, including five hectares purchased in 1969 from neighboring Château Gazin. The vineyards have clay topsoil and gravelly subsoil, allowing good initial water retention but excellent longer term drainage. The vines are old, around forty to fifty years, planted with ninety percent Merlot and five percent Cabernet Franc. To increase concentration the vines are pruned extensively and a green harvest is performed. At harvest time, nearly two hundred workers pick the grapes at their peak of balance and ripeness. Sometimes up to four passes are needed but if pressed, as in 1982, the entire harvest can be completed in just one day.

The grapes are partially destemmed and after a fairly lengthy maceration period, sometimes almost a month, the wine spends twenty months in new oak before being fined (but not filtered) and bottled. Petrus is a classic example of careful vineyard management and winemaking yet the result leaves evidence of something even greater. These methods combine with exquisite terroir for Merlot to create something that is, in good vintages, not only earth-shatteringly tasty, but distinctive, lending the name Petrus majesty because of its quality but also its inimitability.

BURGUNDY

DOMAINE DUJAC

This domaine was founded in 1968 by Jacques Seysses and currently comprises approximately fifteen hectares. Winemakers Jeremy and Diana Seysses have been at the helm of the Domaine since 2001. They believe that the success of their wines lie in the team effort at the Domaine from their Chef de Culture in the vineyard, Lilian Robin, to Jeremy's brother, Alec, and father, Jacques, who contribute in the cellar. In 2009, the Domaine began its conversion to total biodynamic farming practices. The Domaine chooses to emphasize intensity over power and prides itself on producing individualistic wines that are elegant, delicate, and complex.

DOMAINE FOURRIER

Jean-Marie Fourrier took over the family property from his father in the mid-1990s and the quality of the Domaine's wines improved markedly and rapidly. Jean-Marie subscribes to the philosophy that great wines begin in the vineyard and he is fastidious about maintaining healthy, well-nurtured vines. He saw firsthand the importance of minimal intervention in the winemaking process (provided one had excellent raw materials from the vineyards), when he studied under the great Henri Jayer in the late 1980s. Fourrier is careful to crush only the choicest fruit, all completely destemmed, in his immaculately clean and recently outfitted with new stainless steel tanks fermentation room. He also limits the use of new oak to around 20% so as to better allow the Burgundian terroir to fully express itself in the glass. The product of all this hard work is wines marked by wonderful purity, transparency, and bright vibrant fruit, wines that are a true testament to the land that Jean-Marie Fourrier so carefully cultivates.

DOMAINE FRANÇOIS LAMARCHE

Ancestors of the Lamarche family were already established in the village of Vosne-Romanée as early as 1740. Since the end of the nineteenth century, this estate has grown and stayed in Lamarche hands for five generations: Henri Lamarche, a cooper, married Marie Grivelet from Chambolle-Musigny and founded the estate at the beginning of the twentieth century. He produced, matured, and sold his wines directly from the estate. Their son Henri Lamarche, born in 1903, took over the estate. He inherited La Grande Rue in 1933, the year of his marriage to Aline Demur. They would have four children, including François and Geneviève. François took over the reins of the estate when his father passed away in 1985.

Today, there are two generations to welcome you at the estate. The late François Lamarche's wife, Marie-Blanche, is still in charge of sales. Geneviève Lamarche, sister of François, manages the accounts. Nicole, François and Marie-Blanche's daughter, has now taken over the viti-vinicultural part. Nathalie, Geneviève's daughter, manages sales with her aunt.

The jewel in the Lamarche crown is of course the monopole, La Grand Rue. La Grande Rue became a Grand Cru in 1989, with the decree being passed in 1992. If the aspect and terroir of its neighbors are anything to go by, it is one of the finest pieces of viticultural land in the world today. With La Tâche on one side and La Romanée and Romanée-Conti on the other, it is Burgundian terroir at its finest.

THE FINEST WINES FROM AROUND THE WORLD

from a West Coast Collector

(LOTS 382-507)

Zachys is thrilled to be offering a spectacular assortment of wines from a longtime wine aficionado. This collection begins with a treasure trove of rarities from Burgundy, including over twenty lots of DRC in bottles, magnums, and even a Jeroboam of 1996 La Tâche. There are many other elite offerings from Leroy, Mugnier, Roumier, Coche Dury, Ramonet and Roulot, just to name a few. The hits keep coming from the Rhône with a bountiful selection of Chave, Jaboulet, and Rayas. Lastly, true collectors will not want to miss a rare opportunity to acquire bottles and magnums from Bruno Giacosa, including riserva bottlings from the historic 1978 and 1990 vintages.

All wines in this consignment were meticulously cared for and have been stored in a professional storage facility since purchase. The wines were transported via temperature-controlled truck to Zachys warehouse.

CHÂTEAU RAYAS
Most likely needing little introduction, these singular efforts are made by Emmanuel Reynaud from his tiny plot of pure sandy soils located near the center of the Châteauneuf-du-Pape appellation. Surrounded on all sides by forest (which is unique) and a cool terroir, harvest here goes very late and these wines never lack for power or richness.

BRUNO GIACOSA

Bruno Giacosa was born in the town of Nieve, within the Barbaresco DOCG. As young as thirteen Bruno was assisting his father and grandfather in the cellars, and by the age of fifteen he was fully employed in the family firm. Bruno's grandfather, Carlo Giacosa, started the firm in the late nineteenth century when the wine was sold in demi-johns and not estate bottled. It was not until the 1960s that the Giacosas began to sell more wine in bottle than in demi-john!

Up until 1964 the family did not offer any individual cru bottlings of either Barbaresco or Barolo, and following tradition in the region, they were labeled simply as Barolo or Barbaresco. It is noted that even as far back as Carlo Giacosa's time, the wines were vinified and kept separately in the cellars. The two vineyards which they primarily purchased from at that time, the Gallina and Santo Stefano, were only blended together for the Barbaresco "Riserva Speciale" and therefore all regular Barbaresco bottlings were in effect two distinct Barbarescos released under the same label.

Like so many of the top producers in Piedmont, the Giacosas did not own any of the vineyards from which they made their wines. In 1982, they finally purchased a vineyard holding of their own, the 8.4 hectare Falletto vineyard in the village of Serralunga. This purchase in Barolo was followed up more than a decade later when the Giacosa family bought pieces in two of the greatest terroirs in Barbaresco, the Asili and Rabaja vineyards, in time to produce bottlings of the 1996 vintage.

The style of Giacosa's wines are quite traditional, though the fermentations are not quite as long as many of their neighbors of the "old school". Typically the maceration will now last from fourteen to twenty-four days for the Barbarescos and Barolos, which is quite a bit shorter than a producer such as Giuseppe Mascarello, whose Barolo Monprivato macerates for at least thirty days (down from sixty days in years past). Following this maceration the wines are racked into large casks called botti and aged for three to four years. The control of the winery is now in the capable hands of daughter Bruna Giacosa and Cellarmaster Dante Scaglione.

There are no wines that match the prestige or class of Giacosa's in all of Barbaresco and only a select few which share the crown in Barolo.

MASSETO

Maseto is the famous 100% Merlot IGT...and is regarded as one of the best expressions of Merlot in the world. The Merlot vines are cultivated in alluvial, sandy-clayey soils that are rich in minerals. The same care and attention is paid in the vineyard as Ornellaia, with meticulous vineyard husbandry and rigorous sorting.

However the vinification is slightly different, with alcoholic fermentation carried out in wooden vats rather than stainless-steel, ranging in size from 65hl to 125hl. The wine is racked and then transferred into oak barriques where it remains for 24 months, with blending at 12 months.

CHÂTEAU LAFLEUR

Originally part of the Le Gay estate, Lafleur is owned by the Robin family, also owners of Le Gay until 2002. Today Lafleur is managed by Jacques Guinaudeau, a cousin of the owners. The vineyard is just 200 meters from Petrus and although gravelly in appearance, the soils do contain a fair amount of clay. The vines here are fairly old, having largely avoided the 1956 frost, and the yields are low, just twenty-six hl/ha. The grapes are total destemmed, and the wines spend roughly sixteen to twenty months in fifty percent new oak barriques.

DOMAINE BIZOT

Even though Jean Yves Bizot only has about 8 acres under vine, his wines have become a global phenomenon. The Domaine makes pinot noir from miniscule plots in Vosne-Romanée and Echézeaux, with grapes that are fermented in whole clusters and are not de-stemmed or pressed. The wines are enormously perfumed and are truly one of a kind. Domaine Bizot makes fewer than 1000 cases per year.

SCREAMING EAGLE'S BROAD WINGSPAN

It's rare. It's expensive. And there's a mystique about it. But Screaming Eagle Cabernet Sauvignon is no pretender. It's the real thing, and it deserves to be considered among Napa Valley's prestige wines...

You can't make wine this magnificent without fabulous grapes, and Screaming Eagle clearly comes from a spectacular vineyard...on the east side of Oakville, near the Oakville Crossroad...While ripening Cabernet (and smaller amounts of Merlot and Cabernet Franc) is routinely easy in this area, one of the trademarks of Oakville Cabernet is that the wines often display an herbal quality that manifests itself in a variety of subtleties, including hints of anise, sage, dusty berry, cedar and occasionally a whiff of new leather and tar. You find these shades of herb in Cabernets like Heitz Martha's Vineyard (grown on the west side of Oakville), with its signature minty currant personality, or Groth, which is one of the cooler sites on the valley floor. Screaming Eagle captures the best of all these elements. It also epitomizes exquisite balance, managing both to be enormously complex and concentrated, yet elegantly styled, with a smooth, polished texture.

CALIFORNIA

SCARECROW

The heart and soul of the Scarecrow cuvee dates back to the late nineteenth century. Born in 1895, J.J. Cohn rose from poverty in Harlem, New York to become the Chief of Production of MGM Studios in California. Cohn purchased a 180-acre estate in Rutherford in the Napa Valley as a retreat for his family. His estate bordered that of the legendary winemaker of Inglenook, Gustave Niebaum. In 1945, Niebaum convinced Cohn to plant eighty acres of Cabernet Sauvignon that he promised to purchase. This would become the base for the distinguished Inglenook Cabernet Sauvignons of the post-war era. It is important to note that these "Old Vines" that are now the hallmark of Scarecrow are still on their original rootstock planted in 1945, unlike most of the grafted rootstock found in Napa that was struck by phylloxera - possibly paying tribute to J.J. Cohn himself who lived to be 100 years old. Paying homage to his grandfather who during his time at MGM was instrumental in the making of film classics such as The Wizard of Oz, Bret Lopez honors J.J. Cohn with the wine that is Scarecrow.

SALON

With its first vintage in 1905, Champagne Salon began its tradition of extreme attention to terroir, quality, and precision. The unique vineyard Le Mesnil-Sur-Oger, where the grapes are sourced, is nestled in the heart of the Côte des Blancs – the home of Chardonnay in Champagne. Made with 100% Grand Cru Chardonnay only in the best years, the wines are cellared in bottle for an average of ten years before release. Simply put, this is a grand vin...with bubbles.

HARLAN ESTATE

Harlan Estate, owned by Bill Harlan, is a luxury, world-class, Cabernet Sauvignon-based wine produced from a steep, terraced vineyard on the western side of Napa Valley, high above Napa's famous Martha's Vineyard. Approximately twenty-four acres are in vine and the yields to date have been very low. Bill Harlan, better-known as one of the principals of Merryvale Vineyards...has only one objective: to produce one of the greatest red wines of California.

The wines are a blend of approximately two-thirds Cabernet Sauvignon and the remainder Cabernet Franc and Merlot. Bob Levy, Merryvale's winemaker and Michel Rolland, the well-known Bordeaux oenologist, are the architects behind these exceptional efforts. Stylistically the wines are the Napa Valley equivalent of a hypothetical La Mission Haut-Brion/Cheval Blanc blend. They are rich, powerful wines with unmistakable elegance, complexity, and purity.

SYLVAIN CATHIARD

This tiny Domaine was established by Sylvain Cathiard's grandfather (who worked the vineyards for Domaine de la Romanée-Conti) in the 1930s and then maintained by Sylvain's father from 1969 until 1985, when Sylvain himself became involved. The following year, Sylvain set up his own with parcels of vines rented from his father and other vigneron, before taking on his father's original vineyards. From 2006, he has been joined by his son, Sebastian, and they have formed the estate of Sylvain Cathiard et Fils.

Based in Vosne, his 5 hectares span Vosne-Romanée, Nuits-St-Georges and Chambolle-Musigny, with a very small parcel in Romanée-St-Vivant. All vineyard work is carried out with meticulous attention to detail by only himself, his son and his wife.

BOND

As one can see, the approach here is akin to that of Burgundy. Bond Estate is all about identifying small special plots of land and making the best wine possible from each, thereby showcasing the individuality and terroir. At Bond, there is a fine array of very diverse climates and soils, and it is very interesting to taste these wines side by side to see just what a difference soils and situation make.

As age worthy as any of Napa's greatest Cabernets, these are super serious wines and will give great pleasure over the years and decades to come.

END OF SALE

Buying & Bidding Information

Prior to bidding, all participants must read the Buying & Bidding Information and the Conditions of Sale contained in this catalog that state the terms governing the purchase of alcoholic beverage products sold at auction. Auctions are operated by: (i) Zachys Europe Limited in respect of auctions which are conducted from the United Kingdom; (ii) Zachys Asia Limited in respect of auctions which are conducted from Hong Kong; (iii) Zachys Wine Auctions, Inc in respect of auctions which are conducted from anywhere else in the world; and (iv) in respect of online-only auctions, the entity stated in the auction particulars as operator of the auction, (each referred to as "Zachys") acting as agent for and on behalf of the relevant consignor of the goods to be offered for sale (the "Consignor"). By participating in an auction, an auction participant ("Buyer") agrees to be bound by this Buying & Bidding Information and the Conditions of Sale in this catalog (whether in print or online).

Estimates

Catalog lot entries include a description of every lot and an estimated price range that is our opinion of the price expected at auction. Estimates are a guide for bidders and generally reflect prices recently paid at auction for comparable alcoholic beverage products. Each estimate takes into account, among other things, condition, rarity, quality and provenance (history of ownership, to the extent known). Estimates are determined in advance of the sale and are therefore subject to revision. Buyers should not rely upon estimates as a prediction of actual selling prices.

Estimates do not include Buyer's Premium or sales tax. Certain lots may be noted with "Estimate on Request" instead of a printed value in the catalog. Please contact a Zachys specialist for further information and bidding assistance.

Buyers Premium

A 25% Buyer's Premium (exclusive of sales tax) will be added to the successful bid price of each lot purchased and is payable by Buyer, together with all applicable sales tax, as stated in the Conditions of Sale.

Reserves

Unless otherwise indicated, all lots are sold subject to a reserve. A reserve is the confidential minimum price established between Zachys and the Consignor. The reserve will not exceed the low estimate for the lot. If any lot in the catalog is not subject to a reserve, the lot will be identified by the symbol(▼) next to the lot title.

Examination of Wines

Zachys endeavors to select quality wines for auction and uses leading reputable expert(s) to assist Zachys in examining wines for auction. However, to the fullest extent permissible by law, Zachys and any Consignor disclaim any liability arising out of any description or error or omission in any description or any decision by the Buyer to rely on Zachys or any Consignor. Prospective Buyers are urged and advised to examine any lots carefully prior to the auction at our temperature-controlled warehouse and can do so by appointment. Please contact Zachys at +1.914.448.3026, +852.2530.1971 or +44.333.305.5907 to set up an appointment.

Bidder Registration

No person shall bid or buy in any auction (or be shipped any property bought in any auction) who has not agreed (either in writing or electronically) to be bound by the Conditions of Sale and this Buying & Bidding Information. If a prospective Buyer has not previously bid with Zachys, a government issued photo identification (such as National Identity Card or Passport) may be required prior to registration for any sale.

If a business organization registers to bid in an auction, a Business Registration or a Certificate of Incorporation and/or proof of director may be required in order to obtain a paddle. First time Buyers may settle invoices by wire transfer or check only. Zachys requires front and back copies of all credit cards for new Buyers along with picture identification.

Prospective Buyers are asked to supply a bank reference to register for the auction. To avoid delay in the release of purchases, please pre-arrange check or credit approval through our Finance Department at +1.914.874.8034, +852.2530.1971 or +44.333.305.5907.

All bidders who wish to attend the live auction are asked to preregister for a paddle at least two business days in advance of the auction. If you plan to attend the auction, a Bidder Pre-Registration Form is provided in this catalog or at auction.zachys.com. Complete and either fax the form to +1.914.874.8034, +852.2530.1971 or +44.333.305.5907 or email the form to bid@zachys.com or asia@zachys.com at least two business days prior to the auction. Bidders should arrive at least 30 minutes before the scheduled sale of the lot on which they plan to bid to retrieve a paddle.

Bidding

Lots are auctioned in consecutive numerical order, as they appear in the catalog. The auctioneer will accept bids from (i) those present in the saleroom, (ii) absentee bidders participating by telephone, online or by written bid provided to Zachys at least 24 hours prior to the first and session of the auction, or (iii) live over the internet. The auctioneer may also execute bids on behalf of the Consignor's reserve; however, under no circumstances will the auctioneer place any bid on behalf of the Consignor at or above the reserve. The auctioneer will not identify bids placed on behalf of the Consignor. Prospective Buyers who have registered to bid by more than one method (for example, both as an in-saleroom and absentee bidder) must monitor all of their bidding activities (including in-saleroom bids, absentee bids, and online bids) to prevent bidding against themselves. Subject to the section headed "Right of Cancellation" in the Conditions of Sale (in the case of consumers only), for all Zachys live and online auctions, all bids are final and will not be cancelled.

Bidding by Zachys

Zachys reserves the right to bid on any lot on its own behalf, subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to all other Bidders.

Parcel Lots

A parcel is a sequence of lots carrying the same estimates and consisting of the same type, quantity and bottle size. In this sale the Buyer of the first lot of a parcel will have, at the discretion of the auctioneer, the option to take any or all further lots in the parcel for the same price. If the option is not exercised on all lots in the same parcel, the auctioneer will open bidding on the next unsold lot and offer the Buyer of that lot the option to take any or all of the remaining lots in the parcel sequence. Bidding shall continue in the same manner until all lots in the parcel have been offered and declared sold or unsold by the auctioneer. Live Online bidders who purchase the first lot in a parcel will be sent a message requesting that they choose how many additional lots in the parcel they would like to purchase. If the Live Online bidder does not respond to the message, the auctioneer will open the next unsold lot in the sequence.

Bids should be placed on the first lot in a parcel. In the event that a bid is placed on a subsequent lot, Zachys will move the bid to the first lot in the parcel. An unsuccessful bid on the first lot in a parcel will be carried to the next lot and executed on that lot. If unsuccessful again, the bid will be carried to the next lot in the parcel until all lots have been offered.

Online, Absentee, & Telephone Bids for Live Auctions

Please note: Zachys offers the following services as a convenience to clients. Zachys is not responsible for any error in connection with or failure to execute absentee, telephone or online bids.

Online Bids

Live auctions will open for bidding on our website at www.auction.zachys.com approximately 3-4 weeks before the scheduled live auction date. Bids may be submitted online during this period.

There are two ways to bid online: (i) submit the starting/next bid or (ii) submit a maximum bid. To simplify the bidding process, Zachys uses predetermined bidding increments. If a maximum bid is submitted, bids will be placed on your behalf only as much as is required to ensure you remain the highest bidder (up to your maximum bid). In cases when two equivalent maximum bids are submitted, the earlier one will hold.

All bids submitted online are immediately executed. You cannot cancel a bid once it has been submitted. You may, however, adjust your maximum bid while it is higher than the current standing bid.

Estimates and Bid amounts may be shown in a secondary currency, shown in parentheses (), by the user selecting a preferred viewing currency on the website. Please note these values are only an estimate, based on recent exchange rates, and all bids as well as final payments will be conducted in the sale's primary currency.

Prospective Buyers may also bid during the live auction on our website at www.auction.zachys.com.

By registering and bidding on the internet, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale. Zachys assumes no responsibility for disputes or errors arising from online bid activity. In the event of a dispute, the auctioneer's declaration of winning bid and paddle number shall be determinative. In the event of communication delays or failures, the auction will not be stopped. Live online bidders should consider providing Zachys with emergency absentee bids.

Absentee Bids

If you are unable to attend the auction in person and wish to place bids, you may give Zachys instructions in writing to bid on your behalf. Zachys' representatives will then try to purchase the lot or lots of your choice for the lowest price possible, taking into account the reserve price and other bids. This service is free and confidential. To place absentee bids, use the form provided herein or at www.auction.zachys.com. Be certain to accurately record the lot numbers and the highest hammer price you are willing to pay for the lot.

Please note: Your bid amount does not include Buyer's Premium or applicable sales tax. Buyer's Premium and applicable sales tax will be added to the hammer price of each lot.

Absentee bids must be submitted in consecutive numerical order, or they will not be executed. In addition, please use the bid increments included on the absentee bid form. If bids are submitted incorrectly, Zachys will round your bid up to the next increment. Please place bids as early as possible and at least 24 hours prior to the start of the first session of the auction. In the event of identical bids, the earliest bid received will take precedence. By registering and submitting absentee bids, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale.

Telephone Bids

Prospective Buyers may bid by telephone during the live sale. Telephone bids are accepted only at Zachys' discretion and at the prospective Buyer's risk. Because of limited phone lines in the saleroom, Zachys must confirm arrangements for this service at least 48 hours prior to the start of the first session of the auction. At Zachys' discretion, telephone bids may be limited to lots with a value above US$2,000, HK$16,000 or GBP£2,000 and may be recorded. By submitting a telephone bid, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale.

Bidding in Online Auctions

Bids can be submitted anytime during the course of an online auction on our website at www.auction.zachys.com.

There are two ways to bid: (i) submit the starting/next bid or (ii) submit a maximum bid.

To simplify the bidding process, Zachys uses predetermined bidding increments. If a maximum bid is submitted, bids will be placed on your behalf only as much as is required to ensure you remain the highest bidder (up to your maximum bid). In cases when two equivalent maximum bids are submitted, the earlier one will hold.

All bids submitted online are immediately executed. You cannot cancel a bid once it has been submitted. You may, however, adjust your maximum bid while it is higher than the current standing bid.

Estimates and Bid amounts may be shown in a secondary currency, shown in parentheses (), by the user selecting a preferred viewing currency on the website. Please note these values are only an estimate, based on recent exchange rates, and all bids as well as final payments will be conducted in the sale's primary currency.

By registering and bidding on the internet, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale. Zachys assumes no responsibility for disputes or errors arising from online bid activity.

Taxes

Buyers are responsible for the payment of any tax, tariff, duty or other fee which Zachys may be required by law to charge or remit to any authority in respect of or in connection with the sale.

All bids placed by Buyers are deemed to be submitted exclusive of any sales tax including United Kingdom value added tax and/or any other applicable tax of a similar nature, which shall (if required) be payable by the Buyer at the appropriate rate. Applicable VAT or sales tax is charged on the successful bid price, Buyer's Premium, and any other applicable charges on any other property purchased by the Buyer from Zachys unless Buyer has a valid exemption therefrom. All such taxes shall be paid by Buyer at the time of delivery to Buyer at Zachys' licensed location.

Buyers claiming exemption from sales, use or other tax must provide Zachys with documentation, which, in Zachys' sole discretion and judgment, is satisfactory evidence of such exemption, prior to the release of property to the Buyer. Buyers claiming such exemption who are licensed dealers of alcoholic beverages must submit resale certificates and a copy of their valid licenses to Zachys prior to registering for the sale.

The following information is intended to give general advice to buyers on the VAT and certain other potential tax implications of purchasing at Zachys wine auctions. Reference to the following VAT symbols shall mean those symbols located beside the lot number or the pre-sale estimates in the catalogue.

Buyers are responsible for the payment of any tax which Zachys may be required by law to charge or remit to any authority in respect of or in connection with the sale. All bids placed by Buyers are deemed to be submitted exclusive of any VAT and/or any other applicable tax or duties, which shall (if required) be payable by the Buyer at the appropriate rate.

The following VAT schemes are applicable to Zachys Europe Limited auctions and deliveries within the European Union, as prescribed by the symbols accompanying each lot in this catalogue:

Property with a † (Single Dagger) Symbol

These lots are sold under normal VAT rules. VAT is applicable over the hammer price, buyer's premium and any additional charges (if applicable) at a VAT rate prescribed by law. The goods under † do not qualify for a VAT margin scheme. Terms of delivery and any corresponding VAT charges will be discussed with the buyer after the auction on an individual basis.

Property with a ♦ (Black Diamond) Symbol

These lots remain in bond (i.e. not in free EU VAT circulation). Please note that VAT is applicable upon release of the goods into EU free circulation - on request of buyer - over the hammer price, buyer's premium and any additional charges (if applicable) at a rate prescribed by law which is added to the amount payable by the buyer. Terms of delivery will be discussed with buyer after the auction on an individual basis with corresponding VAT charges if - upon request of buyer - the goods will be released into EU free circulation.

Property with a △ (Open Triangle) Symbol

These lots are subject to a "margin scheme", whereby only the buyer's premium and additional charges are taxed with VAT. The rate of buyer's premium including VAT on lots with this symbol is equal to 30%. Buyers eligible for the margin scheme may also opt for the application of regular VAT rules, for example, in case of a delivery of the goods outside the European Union or a delivery within the European Union to a VAT registered buyer. The enhanced buyer's premium amount will be reflected on the buyer invoice. Terms of delivery and any corresponding VAT charges will be discussed with the buyer after the auction on an individual basis.

All questions regarding tax and exemptions should be directed to Zachys Finance Department at +44.333.305.5907, +852.2530.1971 or +1.914.874.8034.

Owned or Guaranteed Property

Zachys offers property consigned by others for sale at public auction. Occasionally, lots are offered which have in the course of the sale process become the property of Zachys. These lots are identified with the symbol (■) next to the lot number.

On rare occasions, Zachys may guarantee a minimum price to the Consignor. Such lots are identified in the catalog by the symbol (▣) next to the lot number. Guaranteed lots may also be sold subject to a reserve.

Successful Bid

The fall of the auctioneer's hammer indicates the final bid, at which time the Buyer assumes full responsibility for the lot. Successful bidders will be notified and invoiced within a few days of the sale. Successful Buyers will pay the price of the final bid plus a 25% Buyer's Premium plus any applicable taxes for each lot purchased.

Payment

For zCollection purchases, Zachys will auto-charge the credit card on file for the full invoice amount within 48 hours of the sale close.

For live auction purchases, Zachys will auto-charge the credit card on file for invoices up to US$20,000, HK$150,000, or GBP £15,000 within 48 hours of the sale close.

In respect of all other purchases, buyers are expected to pay for purchases within 14 calendar days of purchase for live sales and 7 calendar days of purchase for internet sales. At the end of this 14- or 7-calendar day period (as applicable), Zachys reserves the right to charge the Buyer's credit card on file for any amounts still due. All amounts remaining due after this 14- or 7-calendar-day period will be subject to a 2% per month late charge. In addition, any payments in default after 21 calendar days will incur a penalty equal to 3% of the purchase price. Additional late fees equal to 3% of the total purchase price may be charged for every 14 calendar days past the initial 21-calendar day period. All payments are payments on account until all invoices and all balances due are paid in full.

For US auctions, payment is accepted in United States Dollars.

For Hong Kong auctions, payment is accepted in Hong Kong Dollars,

For United Kingdom auctions, payment is accepted in Pounds Sterling.

To request payment in another currency, contact Zachys at +1.914.448.3026, +852.2530.1971 or +44.333.305.5907. Zachys, in its sole discretion, shall determine the currency exchange rate

To avoid delays in the release of your purchases, prospective Buyers are requested to supply bank references prior to the auction.

Payment can be made by credit card, check, money order, or bank wire transfer. In the event of third-party payments, Zachys may require an Authorization Letter from both parties.

Payment by Credit Card

All charges are subject to acceptance by Zachys and the applicable credit card company. Zachys will accept Visa, MasterCard, American Express, Discover and Union Pay. Payment can be made via phone by calling +1.914.448.3026, +852.2530.1971 or +44.333.305.5907. The maximum amount allowed to be charged on credit cards is limited to HK$150,000, US$20,000 or GBP 15,000 per auction, with the exception of payments via American Express which has no limit.

Zachys reserves the right to charge Buyer's credit card and to immediately assess a 3% late penalty charge, should payment be past the due date, notwithstanding that the amount of such charge may exceed HK$1500,000, US$20,000 or GBP 15,000. Zachys reserves the right to charge Buyer's credit card and to immediately assess the relevant late payment charges set out above, should payment be past the due date, notwithstanding that the amount of such charge may exceed the maximum amount.

When making payment via UnionPay, winning bidder must sign the auction invoice and acknowledge that possession of the wine has transferred from Zachys at time of payment. Signature must be same as the one signed on payslip.

Collection of Purchases

Buyers are expected to remove their property within 14 calendar days of the auction. Prospective Buyers' attention is drawn to the Conditions of Sale, including Condition 9.

Collection & Delivery

It is the Buyer's responsibility to pick up purchases or make shipping arrangements within 14 calendar days of the auction. Zachys will not automatically arrange for the delivery of purchased products.

After payment has been received, Zachys can assist in the arrangement of packing, transit insurance, and shipping at the Buyer's expense, direction and request.

Please submit the Collection & Delivery Form to expedite payment and delivery for auction purchases.

Export/Import Permits

Alcoholic beverage products sold at auction may be subject to laws governing export from the jurisdiction where the auction was held and import restrictions of foreign countries. Buyers should always check whether an export license is required before exporting alcoholic beverage products. It is the Buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any relevant export or import license. A delay in obtaining licenses shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor excuse delay in providing full payment for the lot. Local laws may prohibit the importation of some property and/or may prohibit the resale of some property in the country of importation; no such restriction shall justify the rescission of any sale or delay in making full payment for the lot.

Delivery Restrictions

Prospective Buyers are also reminded that various jurisdictions impose limitations on the quantity of alcoholic beverage products which may be purchased and brought into their jurisdiction by a purchaser from another jurisdiction, without requiring the purchaser, a consignor or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits. Zachys shall not as a condition of sale assume any obligation or bear any responsibility whatsoever for applying for or obtaining the requisite permits or licenses in the event the quantity purchased exceeds said limitations. Therefore, all prospective Buyers are strongly advised to investigate the possibility of such limitations and to determine the manner in which alcoholic beverages shall be brought into the jurisdiction so as to comply with all local requirements.

Shipment of Spirits

Prospective Buyers should be advised there are certain restrictions regarding the shipment of spirits. Many countries and states impose limitations on quantity, high duties, and/or taxes, and prospective Buyers should be aware of export and import restrictions.

Translation

The terms and conditions have originally been drafted in English. In the event that any translation of the terms and conditions is prepared, the provisions of the English version shall prevail.

Conditions of Sale

These Conditions of Sale are Zachys' and the Consignor's entire agreement with the Buyer with respect to the property listed in this catalog. The Conditions of Sale and all other contents of this catalog may be amended by posted notices or oral announcements made during the sale. The property will be offered by Zachys as agent for the Consignor, unless the catalog indicates otherwise. By participating in an auction, you agree to be bound by these terms and conditions.

1 This catalog endeavors to describe the property listed herein accurately. However, save as otherwise expressly set out in these Conditions of Sale, and to the fullest extent permissible by law, Zachys and the Consignor shall not be liable for any such description and expressly disclaim any representation or warranty regarding the origin, physical condition, merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, correctness of catalog description, size, quality, condition, rarity, authenticity, attribution, value, importance, provenance, previous storage conditions or historical relevance of any property herein. Zachys further retains the absolute right to amend at any time and in any manner any description of any property contained in any catalog, and shall take reasonable steps to inform Buyers of such change prior to the conclusion of any purchase. Classifications in the text are for identification purposes only and based on standard sources. Buyers must make appropriate allowances for natural variations in ullages, conditions of cases, labels, corks and wine. Each statement contained in any catalog and each other statement, whether oral or written, and whether made at an auction or in an advertisement, bill of sale, addendum, posting, notice, announcement or otherwise, is a statement of opinion only and (subject to the next sentence) shall not be relied upon by any Buyer or otherwise be deemed a warranty or representation.

The previous sentence does not apply to the sale of goods acting as consumers in the United Kingdom – Zachys is under a legal duty to ensure that such goods are in conformity with their description. Images appearing in this catalog or elsewhere are for illustrative purposes only and may not be relied upon to reveal imperfections in any products. Zachys and the Consignor make no representation or warranty, express or implied, as to whether the Buyer acquires any copyright or other reproduction rights in any property. To the fullest extent permissible by law, neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable for errors or omissions in the catalog or any supplemental material. Prospective Buyers are urged and advised to inspect the property before the auction, including the cases, labels, corks and wines, and must satisfy themselves by inspection or other means as to all considerations pertinent to any decision to place any bid. EACH PRODUCT AND EACH LOT HEREIN IS SOLD "AS IS," AND, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMISSIBLE BY LAW, BUYERS EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM ANY RELIANCE ON ZACHYS, THE CONSIGNOR, OR THE CATALOG. No provision of the Buyer & Bidding Information or these Conditions of Sale shall limit or exclude Zachys' or the Consignor's liability for: (i) fraud; (ii) fraudulent misrepresentation; or (iii) death or personal injury arising from its negligence.

2 The purchase price payable by the Buyer ("Purchase Price") will be the sum of the final bid price (the "Hammer Price"), the Buyer's Premium and the Protection Fee, when applicable, together with any applicable sales tax. The Buyer's Premium is 25% of the Hammer Price. The Protection Fee is 1% of the Hammer Price plus the Buyer's Premium.

3 Zachys reserves the right to withdraw any property or cancel any sale before or at the sale and shall have no liability whatsoever for such withdrawal or cancellation.

4 Zachys reserves the right to reject any bid. The highest bidder acknowledged by the auctioneer will be the Buyer. In the event of any dispute between bidders, or any other issue with respect to the bidder, the auctioneer will have absolute discretion to determine the successful bidder, to continue the bidding, to cancel the sale or to reoffer and resell the property in dispute. If any dispute arises after the sale, Zachys' sale record is conclusive.

5 In its sole discretion, Zachys may accept and execute absentee bids (written bids submitted to Zachys prior to the sale), telephone bids and internet bids as a convenience to clients who are not present at auction.

6 Unless otherwise indicated, all lots in this catalog are offered subject to a reserve, which is the minimum price the Consignor is willing to accept. This amount is confidential and will not exceed the low presale estimate. Lots not subject to a reserve are identified with the symbol (d) next to the lot number. Zachys shall act to protect the reserve by bidding through the auctioneer. The auctioneer may open bidding on any lot below the reserve by placing a bid on behalf of the Consignor. The auctioneer may continue to bid on behalf of the Consignor up to the amount of the reserve, either by placing successive bids or by placing bids in response to other bidders.

7 Title to the offered lot passes to the Buyer upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer and the announcement by the auctioneer that the lot has been sold, subject to compliance by the Buyer with all other Conditions of Sale and the Buying & Bidding Information.

8 The Protection Fee is 1% of the hammer price plus the Buyer's Premium for all arranged deliveries of purchased property. In return for payment of the Protection Fee, purchased property will be protected against breakage, loss, theft or fire and other losses as covered by Zachys' insurance while in transit to the Buyer's declared point of destination. If Buyer elects to decline the protection afforded by the Protection Fee, Buyer thereupon assumes full risk and responsibility for the lot while in transit.

9 No property may be removed from Zachys' premises until Buyer has paid the Purchase Price in full plus all other fees and taxes (inclusive of any taxes due in the location of the auction on Buyers who are not residents of such location) and has satisfied such terms as Zachys, in its sole discretion, shall require. Zachys reserves the right to withhold all property until such time as all outstanding amounts are paid in full from purchases from any prior auction(s). Upon receipt of full payment, Zachys will issue a Release Order, which must be presented in order for Zachys to release purchases made at auction. Subject to the foregoing, all lots are to be paid for no later than 4:30 PM (local time at the place of the auction) on the fourteenth calendar day following the live sale, and removed from Zachys' premises at Buyer's expense no later than 90 calendar days after the date of sale. If payment is not made within 14 calendar days of purchase for live sales and 7 calendar days of purchase for net sales, Zachys reserves the right to impose a late charge of up to 2% per month of the Purchase Price, in addition to any other rights and remedies available by law to Zachys. Any payments in default after 21 calendar days of purchase will incur a penalty equal to 3% of the Purchase Price. Additional late fees equal to 3% of the Purchase Price may be charged for every 14 calendar days past the initial 21-calendar-day period. If Buyer fails either to timely remove the purchased lots from Zachys' premises or make timely arrangements with New York Fine Wine Storage or Newcorp Logistics to store the purchased lots, Zachys may transfer such property to a public warehouse for the account, and at the risk and expense, of Buyer. If a lot has not been collected within 90 calendar days of the date of sale and Zachys does not transfer the uncollected property to a public warehouse, Buyer will be liable to Zachys for interest, storage fees, and handling charges.

10 Zachys is not responsible for acts or omissions by itself or others in packing or shipping, whether or not the carrier or packer is recommended by Zachys. Packing and handling of purchased lots are entirely at the risk of Buyer. Zachys may, at the request and direction of Buyer and for an administrative fee, make arrangements for the consolidated shipment by common carrier of the purchased lots, provided that Zachys is not liable in any way therefore.

11 If Buyer fails to comply with any of these Conditions of Sale, Buyer will be in default and Zachys may avail itself of all remedies available by law, including, without limitation, the right to (i) hold such defaulting Buyer liable for the Purchase Price including all fees, charges and expenses, (ii) cancel the sale of that lot and any other property sold to Buyer, (iii) resell the property without Reserve at public auction or privately on reasonable notice to the Buyer, (iv) pay the Consignor an amount equal to the net proceeds payable in respect of the amount bid by the defaulting Buyer and then resell the property to a third party without Reserve at public auction or privately on reasonable notice to such Buyer, and/or (v) take such other action as Zachys deems necessary or appropriate. If Zachys resells the property pursuant to clause (iii) or (iv) above, the defaulting Buyer shall be liable for the payment of any deficiency between the Purchase Price and the price obtained upon resale pursuant to clause (iii) and (iv) above and all costs and expenses, including, without limitation, warehousing, the expenses of both sales, reasonable attorneys' fees, commissions, incidental damages and all other charges due hereunder. In the event that such Buyer pays a portion of the Purchase Price for any or all lots purchased, Zachys shall apply the payment received to such lot or lots that Zachys, in its sole discretion, deems appropriate. Any Buyer who fails to comply with these Conditions of Sale will be deemed to have granted Zachys a security interest in, and Zachys may retain as collateral security for such Buyer's obligation to it, any property in Zachys' possession owned by such Buyer. Zachys shall have the benefit of all rights of a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code or applicable law adopted in the jurisdiction where the auction is held.

Payment will not be deemed to have been made in full until Zachys has collected good funds. In the event Buyer fails to pay any or all of the Purchase Price for any lot within 30 calendar days of sale and Zachys nonetheless elects to pay the Consignor any portion of the sale proceeds, Buyer acknowledges that Zachys shall have all of the rights of the Consignor to pursue the Buyer for any amounts paid to the Consignor, whether at law, in equity, or under these Conditions of Sale.

Notwithstanding any other terms of these Conditions of Sale, if within 3 calendar days of the date of delivery of the property, Buyer notifies Zachys in writing of a claim that any lot is short, ullaged, or has suffered breakage, then Zachys in its sole discretion will decide any such claim as between the Consignor and Buyer and may rescind the sale and refund all or part of the Purchase Price received. This does not affect any other rights of the Buyer at law or under these Conditions of Sale.

Notwithstanding any other terms of these Conditions of Sale, if a Buyer purchased property that is inauthentic and returns such property to Zachys within 90 calendar days of the date of delivery, then Zachys agrees to rescind the sale and refund the Purchase Price received.

The benefit of this Condition of Sale 13 is not assignable and shall be applicable only to the original Buyer of the lot and not to subsequent assigns, buyers, heirs, owners or others who have acquired or may acquire an interest therein.

At its discretion, Zachys will not always cut the bands on original packaging of younger wines. In such cases, Zachys will not accept returns for any issues the Buyer might discover after the band is cut.

Alcoholic beverage products sold at auction may be subject to laws governing export from the jurisdiction where the auction was held and import restrictions of foreign countries. Buyers should always check whether an export license is required before exporting alcoholic beverage products. It is the Buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any relevant export or import license. A delay in obtaining licenses shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor excuse delay in providing full payment for the lot. Local laws may prohibit the importation of some property and/or may prohibit the resale of some property in the country of importation; no such restriction shall justify the rescission of any sale or delay in making full payment for the lot

Prospective Buyers are also reminded that various jurisdictions impose limitations on the quantity of alcoholic beverage products which may be purchased and brought into their jurisdiction by a purchaser from another jurisdiction, without requiring the purchaser, a consignor or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits. Zachys and Consignor shall not as a condition of sale assume any obligation or bear any responsibility whatsoever for applying for or obtaining the requisite permits or licenses in the event the quantity purchased exceeds said limitations.

Therefore, all prospective Buyers are strongly advised to investigate the possibility of such limitations and to determine the manner in which alcoholic beverages shall be brought into the jurisdiction so as to comply with all local requirements.

For auctions that are held not in Hong Kong, the District of Columbia or the United Kingdom, the respective rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the Conditions of Sale and the conduct of the auction shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New York. By participating in an auction, whether present in person or by agent, by absentee bid, telephone bid, internet bid or other means, Buyer shall be deemed to have consented to the exclusive jurisdiction of the State Courts of, and the Federal Courts sitting in, the State and County of New York. For such auctions, Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy against Zachys and/or the Consignor for any dispute or injury related to the auction or the property listed in the catalog shall be the rescission of the sale and the refund of the original Purchase Price paid for the lot. This remedy shall be in lieu of any other remedy which might otherwise be available to Buyer as a matter of law or at equity, and neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable, in whole or in part, for any indirect, special, punitive, incidental or consequential damages, including, without limitation, loss of profits.

For auctions that are held in Hong Kong, the respective rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the Conditions of Sale and the conduct of the auction shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. By participating in an auction, whether present in person or by agent, by absentee bid, telephone bid, internet bid or other means, Buyer shall be deemed to have consented to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. For such auctions, Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy against Zachys and/or the Consignor for any dispute or injury related to the auction or the property listed in the catalog shall be the rescission of the sale and the refund of the original Purchase Price paid for the lot. This remedy shall be in lieu of any other remedy which might otherwise be available to Buyer as a matter of law or at equity, and neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable, in whole or in part, for any indirect, special, punitive, incidental or consequential damages, including, without limitation, loss of profits.

For auctions that are held in the District of Columbia, the respective rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the Conditions of Sale and the conduct of the auction shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the District of Columbia. By participating in an auction, whether present in person or by agent, by absentee bid, telephone bid, internet bid or other means, Buyer shall be deemed to have consented to the exclusive jurisdiction of the District of Columbia courts and the United States District Court for the District of Columbia. For such auctions, Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy against Zachys and/or the Consignor for any dispute or injury related to the auction or the property listed in the catalog shall be the rescission of the sale and the refund of the original Purchase Price paid for the lot. This remedy shall be in lieu of any other remedy which might otherwise be available to Buyer as a matter of law or at equity, and neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable, in whole or in part, for any indirect, special, punitive, incidental or consequential damages, including, without limitation, loss of profits.

For auctions that are held in the United Kingdom, the respective rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the Conditions of Sale and the conduct of the auction shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales. By participating in an auction, whether in person or by agent, absentee bid, telephone bid, online bid or other means, the Buyer irrevocably agrees that the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with these Conditions of Sale, the Buyer & Bidding Information or their subject matter or formation. For such auctions, Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy against Zachys and/or the Consignor for any dispute or injury related to the auction or the property listed in the catalog shall be the rescission of the sale and the refund of the original Purchase Price paid for the lot. This remedy shall be in lieu of any other remedy which might otherwise be available to Buyer as a matter of law or at equity, and neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable, in whole or in part, for any indirect, special, punitive, incidental or consequential damages, including, without limitation, loss of profits. In the event of any dispute relating to any purchases made online, the Buyer may refer to guidance regarding online alternative dispute resolution published by the National Trading Standards at www.nationaltradingstandards.uk/contact.

All offers and sales of alcoholic beverage products by Zachys are subject to the local laws governing the sale of alcoholic beverage products in the jurisdiction in which the auction takes place.

17a Right of Cancellation

This section only applies to Buyers based in the European Union or United Kingdom who are acting as consumers (i.e. for purposes unconnected with their trade or business) who have purchased in an auction held in the United Kingdom.

In the event that the Buyer purchases a product in any way other than in person at an auction (such other way being, for example, by way of absentee, telephone and/or online bid), the Buyer shall have a legal right to:

- (i) withdraw any bid at any point prior to acceptance by Zachys (i.e. at the fall of the hammer); and/or
- (ii) cancel any purchase within 14 days, which period shall expire after 14 days from the day on which the Buyer (or any third party indicated by the Buyer to receive such delivery) acquires physical possession of the goods (or the last good, in the case of multiple deliveries as part of the same lot) or,

To exercise the right to cancel any purchase, the Buyer is required to:

- (i) inform Zachys of such decision by a clear statement in writing to auction@ zachys.com by no later than the expiry of the above cancellation period; and
- (ii) send back the goods to or hand over the goods in person at Newcorp Logistics, Sikkell 13, 3274 KK Heinenoord, The Netherlands without undue delay and in any event no later than 14 days from the day on which the Buyer sends the relevant cancellation notice.

Subject to the foregoing, in the event that the Buyer cancels any purchase, Zachys shall reimburse the Buyer all payments received by it from the Buyer, including any costs of delivery paid to Zachys (except for delivery costs exceeding the least expensive type of standard delivery). The Buyer is required to bear the direct cost of returning the goods.

Zachys shall make the reimbursement without undue delay, and not later than: (i) 14 days after the day Zachys receives back from the Buyer any goods supplied; or (ii) if earlier, 14 days after the day the Buyer provides evidence that it has returned the goods. If possible, Zachys shall make the reimbursement using the same means of payment as used by the Buyer for the initial transaction, unless expressly agreed otherwise.

Zachys may make a deduction from the reimbursement for loss in value of any goods supplied, if the loss is the result of handling by the Buyer other than as necessary to establish the nature and characteristics of the goods. For the avoidance of doubt, this cancellation right will not apply to any bottles of wine which have been opened.

District of Columbia and New York State law requires that Buyers of alcoholic beverages must be at least 21 years of age. Hong Kong and English law requires that Buyers of alcoholic beverages must be at least 18 years of age. Buyers should observe and comply with the applicable laws relating to the purchase of alcoholic beverages in the jurisdiction where the auction is held. By participating in the auction, each Buyer represents and warrants to Zachys that he, she or it has the legal capacity to purchase, receive, and possess any lot purchased.

19

Zachys does not ship alcoholic beverage products. As an accommodation to Buyers, Zachys may arrange to have property packed, insured and delivered at Buyer's expense and direction, but (other than as provided in Condition of Sale 8) Zachys shall have no liability or obligation for shipping alcoholic beverage products. Zachys makes no representation, and assumes no obligation, with respect to the legality of shipment of alcoholic beverage products into any jurisdiction. Zachys urges all Buyers to investigate and understand the alcoholic beverage products shipping laws and regulations of the jurisdiction to which they intend the alcoholic beverage products to be shipped prior to the purchase of alcoholic beverage products at auction.

By participating in the auction, Buyer agrees with Zachys and the Consignor that these Conditions of Sale, together with any instrument captioned (i) Buying & Bidding Information and (ii) General Catalog Notes published by Zachys and in effect from time to time and which are incorporated herein by reference as part of this Condition of Sale, shall become the legal, valid, and binding obligation of the Buyer, enforceable in accordance with their terms by Zachys and the Consignor (who is both a party hereto and, with respect to portions hereof between Buyer and Zachys, an intended third-party beneficiary).

21

In the event any one or more of the provisions, or any part or parts of a provision, of these Conditions of Sale and/or the Buying & Bidding Information is determined to be invalid or unenforceable in any respect, the validity and enforceability of all remaining provisions and parts of provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired.

22

If there is any inconsistency between the English and translated version of the General Catalog Notes, the Buying & Bidding Information, the Conditions of Sale or all other relevant documents, forms, website or emails, the English version shall prevail.

General Catalog Notes

Level/Ullage Descriptions & Interpretations

- IN Into Neck: Excellent for a wine of any age.
- BN Bottom Neck: Excellent for a wine of 10 years or older.
- VTS Very Top Shoulder: Normal for any wine 10 years or older.
- TS Top Shoulder: Normal for any wine 25 years or older.
- JBTS Just Below Top Shoulder: Normal for any wine 30 years or older.
- US Upper Shoulder: Slight natural reduction through easing of cork and evaporation through cork and capsule. Very good for any wine over 40 years old. Excellent for any wine over 50 years of age.
- UMS Upper-Mid Shoulder: Good for any wine 50-60 years of age.
- MS Mid Shoulder: Probably some weakening of the cork. Very good for wines over 50-60 years of age. Estimates usually take this into account.
- LS Low Shoulder: Some weakening of cork acceptable if wine or label is exceptionally rare or interesting.

Because of the slope of shoulder, it is impractical to describe levels of Burgundy-shaped bottles as into neck, etc. Wherever appropriate, the level between capsule and wine will be measured and cataloged in centimeters.

The condition and drinkability of Burgundy are less affected by ullage than its equivalent from Bordeaux. For example, a 5 to 7cm. ullage in a 50 year old Burgundy can be considered normal, indeed good for that age; and 3.5 to 4cm., excellent for that age.

Champagne bottle measurements are done from the bottom of the foil to the level of the wine.

Label & Capsule Conditions

Labels and capsules can become soiled, stained, or otherwise marked, especially with wines over 20 years of age. Unless otherwise noted, label conditions will be appropriate for age, but Buyers should note that normal staining, discoloration or other conditions may not be noted if such conditions are appropriate for the age of the label. Potential Buyers are invited to make appointments to inspect wines personally.

Special Notices

Though every effort is made to describe or measure the levels of older vintages, corks over 20 years old begin to lose their elasticity and levels can change between cataloging and sale. Old corks have also been known to fail during or after shipment. We therefore repeat that there is always a risk of cork failure with old wines, and Zachys assumes no responsibility for this.

Under no circumstances can an adjustment of price or credit be made after delivery, except as provided in Paragraph 13 of the Conditions of Sale in this catalog.

Unless otherwise stated, Bordeaux are Château bottled.

It is Zachys' general policy to describe levels for vintages prior to 1990. Unless otherwise noted, ullage levels will be appropriate for age.

At Zachys discretion, we will not always cut the bands on original packaging of younger wines. In such cases all wines are sold AS IS and will not accept returns for any issues the buyer's might discover after the band is cut.

At times, bottle numbers will be covered in photos to protect consignor anonymity.

Collection, Delivery & Storage of Wine

Purchases will be stored free of charge for the first 90 days after the auction at which the wine is purchased. After 90 days, clients will automatically be billed for any future storage.

For US Auctions

Storage

Wine purchased at auction is stored at New York Fine Wine Storage (NYFWS) located in Port Chester, New York. The 15,000 square foot warehouse is equipped with a state-of-the-art alarm system that is monitored 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. A 50-ton refrigeration system provides an ideal temperature, and all wines are protected with a temperature alarm system, as well as a backup generator. Rates are competitive, and the merchandise will not have to be moved to another location.

For further information or directions, please call NYFWS at 914.874.8068.

Pickup

Wines can be picked up from the Zachys Wine Auction warehouse or Zachys Wine and Liquor, Inc. store between the hours of 9 AM and 5 PM Monday through Friday, provided that payment for the lots has been received. Buyers can arrange to collect their wine by appointment by phoning Zachys at 914.448.3026. Please provide at least 72 hours notice before coming to collect your purchases. Any additional packaging and/or handling that is required or requested will be subject to processing fees.

Delivery

Purchases will not automatically be shipped. Once payment has been received, arrangements can be made to deliver the wines to the Buyer to the primary shipping address on the account. For further information or collection and delivery assistance, please call 914.448.3026 or email auction@zachys.com.

Original wooden cases and original cartons, when available, will be shipped automatically at $12 per case, unless instructed otherwise.

Zachys can assist you in making arrangements to have the wine purchased at auction shipped. All shipments and pickups will be subject to a 1% Shipping Protection Fee charge. This Shipping Protection Fee provides protection against only breakage, theft or fire as covered by Zachys insurance with respect to purchased property packed, shipped and delivered pursuant to arrangements made by Zachys. Zachys and its forwarding agents cannot be held responsible for any other changes to the wines during shipment. Loss or breakage resulting from shipping that Zachys has arranged must be reported to Zachys in writing within three days of delivery of the property, which must be examined in the presence of the carrier on arrival.

To insure the safety of the wines, it may be necessary in some shipments to repack the wines in protective shipping containers and to ship the wooden cases separately at an additional charge.

Buyers are also reminded that various jurisdictions impose limitations on the quantity of alcoholic beverages which may be purchased and brought into their jurisdiction by a purchaser from another jurisdiction, without requiring the purchaser, a consignor or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits. Zachys makes no representation, and assumes no obligation, as to the legality of shipment of alcoholic beverages into any jurisdiction. Zachys urges all Buyers to investigate and understand the wine shipping laws and regulations of the jurisdiction to which they intend the wine to be shipped prior to the purchase of wines at auction. The protection afforded by the Shipping Protection Fee does not cover confiscation by any government or law enforcement agency as a result of alleged violations of applicable laws by Sellers or Buyers.

Zachys will take precaution to ensure the safety of wines against inclement weather conditions. This may include delaying shipments during times of extreme high or low temperatures.

Original wooden cases and original cartons, when available, will be shipped automatically at £1 per case, unless instructed otherwise.

Zachys can assist you in making arrangements to have the wine purchased at auction shipped. All shipments will be subject to a 1% Protection Fee charge. This Shipping Protection Fee provides protection against only breakage, loss, theft or fire as covered by Zachys insurance while in transit to the Buyer's declared point of destination. Zachys and its forwarding agents cannot be held responsible for any other changes to the wines during shipment. Loss or breakage resulting from shipping that Zachys has arranged must be reported to Zachys in writing within three days of delivery of the property, which must be examined in the presence of the carrier on arrival. If Buyer elects to decline the protection afforded by the Protection Fee, Buyer thereupon assumes full risk and responsibility for the lot while in transit.

To ensure the safety of the wines, it may be necessary in some shipments to repack the wines in protective shipping containers and to ship the wooden cases separately at an additional charge.

Buyers are also reminded that various jurisdictions impose limitations on the quantity of alcoholic beverages which may be purchased and brought into their jurisdiction by a purchaser from another jurisdiction, without requiring the purchaser, a consignor or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits. Delivery Charges

The following information is intended to give general advice to buyers on the VAT and certain other potential tax implications of purchasing at Zachys wine auctions. Reference to the following VAT symbols shall mean those symbols located beside the lot number or the pre-sale estimates in the catalogue.

Buyers are responsible for the payment of any tax which Zachys may be required by law to charge or remit to any authority in respect of or in connection with the sale. All bids placed by Buyers are deemed to be submitted exclusive of any VAT and/or any other applicable tax or duties, which shall (if required) be payable by the Buyer at the appropriate rate.

The following VAT schemes are applicable to deliveries within the European Union, as prescribed by the symbols accompanying each lot in this catalogue:

PROPERTY WITH A † (SINGLE DAGGER) SYMBOL

These lots are sold under normal VAT rules. VAT is applicable over the hammer price, buyer's premium and any additional charges (if applicable) at a VAT rate prescribed by law. The goods under † do not qualify for a VAT margin scheme. Terms of delivery and any corresponding VAT charges will be discussed with the buyer after the auction on an individual basis.

PROPERTY WITH A ♦ (BLACK DIAMOND) SYMBOL

These lots remain in bond (i.e. not in free EU VAT circulation). Please note that VAT is applicable upon release of the goods into EU free circulation - on request of buyer - over the hammer price, buyer's premium and any additional charges (if applicable) at a rate prescribed by law which is added to the amount payable by the buyer. Terms of delivery will be discussed with buyer after the auction on an individual basis with corresponding VAT charges if - upon request of buyer - the goods will be released into EU free circulation.

PROPERTY WITH A △ (OPEN TRIANGLE) SYMBOL

These lots are subject to a "margin scheme", whereby only the buyer's premium and additional charges are taxed with VAT. The rate of buyer's premium including VAT on lots with this symbol is equal to 30%. Buyers eligible for the margin scheme may also opt for the application of regular VAT rules, for example, in case of a delivery of the goods outside the European Union or a delivery within the European Union to a VAT registered buyer. The enhanced buyer's premium amount will be reflected on the buyer invoice. Terms of delivery and any corresponding VAT charges will be discussed with the buyer after the auction on an individual basis.

Dedicated Delivery

Zachys can assist with shipments to many international destinations. Quotes vary based upon quantity and destination.

Please contact us at auction@zachys.com or 914.448.3026 to obtain a quote.

Consolidated Shipments

Zachys offers consolidated shipments between Port Chester, Hong Kong and Rotterdam several times a year. Please contact us for more information.

Rotterdam - UK

Zachys offers a free consolidated shipment to the United Kingdom, duty, excise, VAT (if applicable) and local delivery fees will apply.

Special Notices:

Split lots are available upon request for a fee.

Delivery charges will include any applicable tax, duty, tariffs, or other fees as required by laws. Buyers are responsible for import tariffs at the destination country.

Export/Import Permits

Alcoholic beverage products sold at auction may be subject to laws governing export from the jurisdiction where the auction was held and import restrictions of foreign countries. Buyers should always check whether an export license is required before exporting alcoholic beverage products. It is the Buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any relevant export or import license. A delay in obtaining licenses shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor excuse delay in providing full payment for the lot. Local laws may prohibit the importation of some property and/or may prohibit the resale of some property in the country of importation; no such restriction shall justify the rescission of any sale or delay in making full payment for the lot.

Currency of fulfillment and applicable fees are determined by the origin of the shipment.

Zachys is not responsible for any acts or omissions of any shipper with whom Buyer, not Zachys, has made arrangements to pack, ship or deliver purchased lots, including, without limitation, any packing, shipping or delivery of purchased lots

Adult signature is required for all shipments.

Please contact our Customer Service Department at +1.914.448.3026, +852.2530.1971 or +44.333.305.5907, or by email at auction@zachys.com or asia@zachys.com with inquiries or for more information

Credit Information

For any purchase under $20,000, your credit card will be charged immediately when the auction ends. For any purchase over $20,000, buyers are expected to pay for purchases within 14 calendar days after the auction. At the end of this 14 day period, Zachys reserves the right to charge the Buyer's credit card on file for any amounts still due. All amounts remaining due after this 14 day period will be subject to a 2% per month late charge. In addition, any payments in default after 21 days will incur a penalty equal to 3% of the purchase price. Additional late fees equal to 3% of the total purchase price may be charged for every 14 days past the initial 21 day period. All payments are payments on account until all invoices and all balances due are paid in full. Please submit the Collection & Delivery Form provided in this catalog to expedite payment and delivery for auction purchases.

To avoid delays in the release of your purchases, prospective Buyers are requested to supply bank references prior to the auction. All charges are subject to acceptance by Zachys and the applicable credit card company. Zachys will accept Visa, MasterCard, Discover (US only), American Express, and Union Pay★ (HK only). The maximum allowed to be charged on credit cards is limited to HK$200,000 or US$20,000 per auction, except for American Express which has no limit. Zachys reserves the right to charge Buyer's credit card and to immediately assess a 3% late penalty charge, should payment be past the due date, notwithstanding that the amount of such charge may exceed HK$200,000 or US$20,000.

In the event a charge or check is not accepted by the appropriate financial institution, Buyer remains liable for all amounts owed on the dates due.
